Prologue

My current life sucks.

Such as, your salaries won't go up despite how hard you work.

Such as, you don't pleased with the government but you can't do a thing.

Such as, you don't have anything to make you excited.

And you have hidden feeling that can't be described in a words.

Such as doesn't have hope to look at the future.

Such as doesn't have hope in your country.

Such as, work is eating your private time away.

And you also think the opposite.

Did you already your best?

Did you really can't do anything?

Did you have worked hard enough to get to the goal?

Doesn't want to work hard.

Doesn't want to get tired.

Doesn't want some trouble.

Nobodies like anything mentioned above.

I too don't like it.

That's why I run away to games, internet, and light novels.

In the game, I'm the strongest.

Can use any weapons, have a powerful body.

I'm the hero who slay evils, also the villain who does evils.

Even though I said that Coward like me can only playing as good person.

Recently, a game that you can free roaming had been released a lot and I got sucked in.

A type that you can make characters do anything.

To spend my time in such free and convenient world, I'm feeling good.

Spending time by reading [Good chill story]'s light novels is also great.

That genre where the protagonist is very attractive to girls like a joke.

In your heart scream [Nope, LOL] or [That easy!].

But, if I got girls to tend me like that, will be very fortunate.

It should be a trend or something recently because there is a whole lot of harem+cheat things.

Girls can be innocent, tsundere, older or younger sister that can be related by blood or not.

Loli-baba, elf, animal girl that only have minor human ratio is fine too.

Strike zone of mine is wide of course.

There is also a lot of people who think [My current life sucks.] on the internet.

When I join in and ranting about something I hate about societies in there, I feel refresh like bathing in warm water.

And the internet is full of fun.

There is a lot of contents made by a lot of people for you to digest.

When you full with one, you go to another.

When you finished having fun with another one, you go for another.

The thing about how hard to create some content for creators, don't wanna know such thing.

I just wanna digest content as a normal consumer.

Is continuing to be like this is good?

Voice in my heart is resounding like that, but I hold it in.

Well, troublesome things gonna appear one after another, I don't like a single bit of it.

And I who is like that leaked out a ranting.

“AAhhh.....I want to go to the fantasy world that’s like a game, And don’t just be the normal everyday person, I want to be a protagonist in Very easy mode.”

Everybody should once have hoped for this, right?

Even I speaking this very often, but when I mostly play Hard Mode just so you know.

But, if it’s possible to go, I want Very easy mode, please.

Then a voice reply

[Yeah, then why don’t you try?]

And my conscious fade away.

Chapter 1: When I realized, I'm already in another world

"HMM?"

When I realize, I'm now standing in the middle of a grassland.

Look to the left, grass. To the right, grass. To the back, forest. In front of me is a slope.

"What? He...Hey?"

I kept looking around.

But the situation is still the same.

I try to touch grass below me.

Um, It's grass alright.

I try to pinch my cheek.

Yeah, it's hurt.

By the way, my belly.

The full of happiness excessive belly fat is now flat and straight.

I look at my own hands.

This is mine hands for sure.

But, the scar from the old accident is gone. And my skinny arms now have muscles.

"Calm down, Calm down me."

While talking to myself, I adjust my glasses.

There are no glasses.

Me, whose eyes should be short-sightedness, is now can see as normal.

Well, in truth I should be in my room, sitting and faced my PC monitor and playing a game like every day.

Well, I should be checking myself first.

What is my name?

Mitsuba Taichi, an uncle whose age will turn 30 soon, a plump body salaryman.

My parents divorced, mom dies 5 years ago, dad is nowhere to be found.

Currently living with my grandmother and one dog.

Great, I still remember all my own information without fail And I still can recall all my past event. No problem.

“Well, Where is this place?”(Taichi)

I never saw this scenery before.

Can't remember that I've visited here.

Normally, I should be sitting in front of my PC and surfing net, or under my blanket like every day.

And how come this situation? I don't understand.

Now, I should try checking my clothes.

Good thing that I'm not naked because I'm only wearing trunk when I'm going to sleep.

Clothes I'm wearing is tough looking pants, shirt, and leather boots.

The material is maybe hard kenaf thread, for my information I never had clothes like these before.

Nothing else is within mine body.

THE truly barehanded.

Purse, smartphone, car, house key, nothing at all.

I have no idea what I should do. For now, I should go up that slope in front of me.

Maybe I will spot some familiar places.

No, if just there is some people house, I should be able to do something.

“OH....”(Taichi)(TLN: He said this in English)

My expectation was beautifully crushed.

“No matter where you look, that is just freaking fantasy fortress town!”

What I see in front, next by grassland there is a strong looking wall made of stone. And pointy building that looks like it came from the middle age.

Dream? Reality feel dream?

No, details of grass, feeling of wind, no matter what I think it's real.

Now, let's choose.

First, should I go to town or should I go to the forest in the back?

Nope, what is in the forest, don't wanna know.

How about fortress town? Is it really safe?

No weapon, no money.

Hell, isn't there some tutorial?

[So, let's explain.]

“Heh?”(Taichi)

There is a voice in my head.

Wait? What? I'm scared here!

[You should have guessed by now, this is not the world you're from. It's the different world you called fantasy world.]

Ugh... This guy speaking directly to my head.....!

By the way, isn't this too cliché?

[Well, it's a fantasy world you want, you should be happy.]

“Hurray”(Taichi)

I pretend to be happy.

2 minutes passed, now I'm fed up.

[This world is different from yours, this world has magic.

Civilization here, If compare to your world it's should be around middle age.

When you only go for magic, so it's become like this.

On other hands, science is not developed much, nearly any.

And there's also something like "monster", so be careful not to get eaten.]

"It's totally fantasy world by the book, isn't it. So, what can I do, do I have a special power."(Taichi)

Doesn't even try to think of whose voice is it.

When you can't think about a thing, so you don't.

[For now you're not different from normal person, but if you collect experience points,

You'll get a power that even people from this world can't be compared. Try open the menu.]

"Hah? Menu?"(Taichi)

Shortly after I mumble, some sort of information is floating in front of me.

Current time, position, map, inventory, skills, and others menu that can be seen in RPG.

And my name became "Taichi Mitsuba".

By the way, what is this "God call"?

[There are all necessary items for living for now in your inventory, use it worthwhile.

In skill menu, you can put your skill point for the one you want, It can make you advance martial artist in a very short amount of times, compared to normal ways.]

I look into inventory and found a short sword, adventurer set, food for 3 meals, water and money coins in there.

In adventurer set, there is also some necessities tools for adventures.

Yeah, like in TRPG.

And it looks like I can just chant in my head, then I can bring out an item.

As expected of another world, so fantasy.

“How do I get skill point? Can I reset my skills?”(Taichi) [When you gain experience point and Lv. up, you’ll get a skill point.

You can reset skill once every 20 Lv.]

“I get it..... By the way, there is a ton of skills.”(Taichi) Just skim through, and I see over 100 skills?

Sword, polearms, ax, bow, throwing weapon, there is a lot of weapons using catalogs.

And also types of magic such as earth, water, wind, fire, 4 main elements or light, dark, healing etc.

Production skills or life necessities skill such as cooking, cleaning sewing, smithing, alchemy, farming, woodworking.

All that left is special one such as eye of the heart, devil’s eye, appraisal, negotiation, steal, stealth, dodge, physical enhance.

Starting skill point is 10. It doesn’t fix at anything, so I have to try many things myself.

But, basically, f skill Lv. is higher, the point it needs more point.

And even some of the Lv.1 skills is needed several points.

[Every skill have the highest cap at Lv.5, some special skill doesn’t have cap

If you compare Lv. to martial arts, Lv.1 is experienced one, Lv.2 is skilled one, Lv. 3 is master, Lv.4 is the grand master, Lv.5 is superhuman.]

“Barehanded, bow, cooking is at Lv.1 from the start. and negotiation is already Lv.2”(Taichi)

[That’s the experience you’ve piled up from your former world.]

Ah, now I remember that I’ve had been training in Shaolin kungfu before.

And I’ve tried bow a little too.

For food, I made it myself normally.

But, I still don’t get it all. Because I almost forget all the kungfu already.

Negotiation at Lv.2 is from the other side job....

“I get it, and when it comes this way.... What do I need to do?”(Taichi)

[Do as you wish, Be the hero or evil, trying to find a way back to your former world or live here till you die is okay too.]

“So much freedom.”(Taichi)

So, first thing first is to prepare necessities things to live in this world.

[And Tutorial end here, I will watch you from time to time, but if there is anything then try call me.]

And the voice in my head is gone.

For now, let's not thinking about him too much, He should be the great-great something.

Whatever is it, now it's time to checking many things.

I open status.

The main status is STR VIT AGI DEX POW these 5.

My current digit is 28 36 24 32 127, POW is overwhelming.

STR should be physical strength, VIT is sturdiness, AGI is swiftness, DEX is precision, But what the heck is POW?

At the corner there is HP and MP point, my HP is 56 and MP is 147

“It is magic power, maybe?”(Taichi)

It should be.

By the story about protagonist got sent to another world, it should have weirdly high magic power.

Then, after I got a conclusion, I should try moving my body.

Let's sprint for short length. OHH. My body feels light, goodbye my overweight self.

Yosh, Let's try spending skill point for physical enhancement skill.

It became STR42 VIT54 AGI36, but DEX stays the same.

Just 1 Lv. and it goes up by 50%, Great.

I can feel it when Lv. raised by 1, running speed is increased, and it more easy to breathe.

Next is a short sword from inventory.

Suddenly, there is a short sword in my hand, it's sure is heavy.

You should carefully handle sharp things, so I try slowly slashing.

When I'm used to its weight, I try slashing like in "real fight".

Putting in strength is not good enough, and the swinging sound is suck.

Um, this is totally like children playing with a sword.

So I raised Sword proficient to Lv.1 and try slashing again.

Um, much better than last time.

Even I doesn't put out much force Swinging sound is also good.

Next, I spend 2 points and raise Sword proficient to Lv.2.

This time my lower body feel steady, it must have improved my body position.

Because my movement got much better.

So, I should raise Barehanded fighting so it can be used too.

Because, if you have trouble in town, bring out sword is dangerous.

I attached the short sword to my belt and check my status again.

Now I used 6 skill points, 4 left.

These 4 should be put in Magic.

Healing magic first, Lv.1. And I also want attack magic.

But, there are a lot of magic type.

Darkness magic, Dimensional magic, Non-elemental magic, Ancient magic, there a lot of types that got me excited.

But for now, let's focus on 4 main elementals.

In the end, after all those distress, it comes out as Healing magic Lv.1, Wind magic Lv.2.

The magic that can be used for Healing magic Lv.1 is Heal.

Wind Magic Lv.1 is Wind bullet that compresses air into ball-shaped, then shoot at a target.

Wind Magic Lv.2 is Wind blade and Air shield.

I should test Wind bullet and Wind blade, to see how it's work.

"So this is it. It's convenient."(Taichi)

Attack magic can be applied in a various way, depends on your imagination.

Consecutive shots, many shots at the same time, alter its trajectory, it can be controlled in various ways.

I got absorbed into magic test too much, my MP is only 32 left, I nearly depleted it all.

Yosh, let's go to the town.

After I starting headed toward town for a couple of minutes. Suddenly, the animal that looks like boar jumped out of the forest.

Sadly, real boar doesn't have something like this creature.

What the hell is that enormous tusk?

"Uwahh!"(Taichi)

I dodged its fast charging.

I don't know what I've done to piss it, 'cause it turns around and charging here again.

This is the so-called situation isn't it, the first battle.

I hesitate a little to take down a thing that doesn't look much like a monster. But if I got confronted like this, I only have to fight back.

I draw a short sword out and dodge aside, then slash at its leg.

It's given out loud scream and fall down, I follow and piecing it throat and yank a blade out.

Blood gushing out of it wound, the boar is not moving anymore.

“I kill it real fast...”(Taichi)

I took life far more easily than I’ve thought.

When I was in the former world, at most I’ve only kill mice or insects.

.....Well, maybe I still can’t think of this as reality.

So, I try to put its corpse into my inventory, and it states “Small boar’s corpse”.

When I try and press “Dissemble” button that popped up, “Small boar’s corpse” become “Small boar’s meat” and “Small boar’s leather”.

It’s sure is convenient alright.

After that, on the way to the town, Small boar and Big hornet attacked me, so I killed them too.

When I check my menu again, I need just only a little more EXP. to level up, but now I’m on the road to town gate already, so I sheath my sword.

I passed by some native peoples, everyone looks like they’re from Europe.

Because my face, black hair, and black eyes look unusual for them maybe? They took a glance at me a lot.

I take a look at the scenery of farm and pasture on sideways while walking to the gate.

Certainly, there is a guard soldier at the gate, checking people who want to pass through.

Now, will I understand when they talk?

“Next, show me your identification”(Guard)

“I just come from the countryside, so I still don’t have one. ”(Taichi)

After standing in line, while listening to old peddlers chatting with each other for around 10 minutes, I said that with a poker face.

Poker face and flowing with a situation is the basic essential skill for socializing of course.

Guard soldier made a fed up face when he heard me.

Hey, How can you do that to a customer.

“If you don’t have one then go that way, They’ll issue you a temporary one and staying permit.”

Then he pointed his finger at the stern looking building.

Seem like the soldier needs to issue document from there.

I’m little furious at the way he looks after a customer, but I still do as he said.

If I start ranting, I might get targeted by these law enforcers, It’s scary when you think about it.

When I get inside, I see crystal ball with the handprint on the surface, placed on top of the table.

What is this? What happens when you touch it?

“Take a seat. First, issue fee is 5 big coppers, you have enough right?”(Guard)

“Ah, these right?”(Taichi)

I took a seat just as he said, then pretending to put my hand in my pocket, then take out 5 big copper coins from my inventory from there.

Now, I have 1 gold coin, 2 big silver coins, 8 silver coins, 13 big copper coins, 20 copper coins left.

To tell the truth, I still didn’t know how much lesser coin is equal to bigger ones.

I should hurry and learn.

“Correct, name?”(Guard)

“Taichi Mitsuba”(Taichi)

“What a strange name... Hometown?”

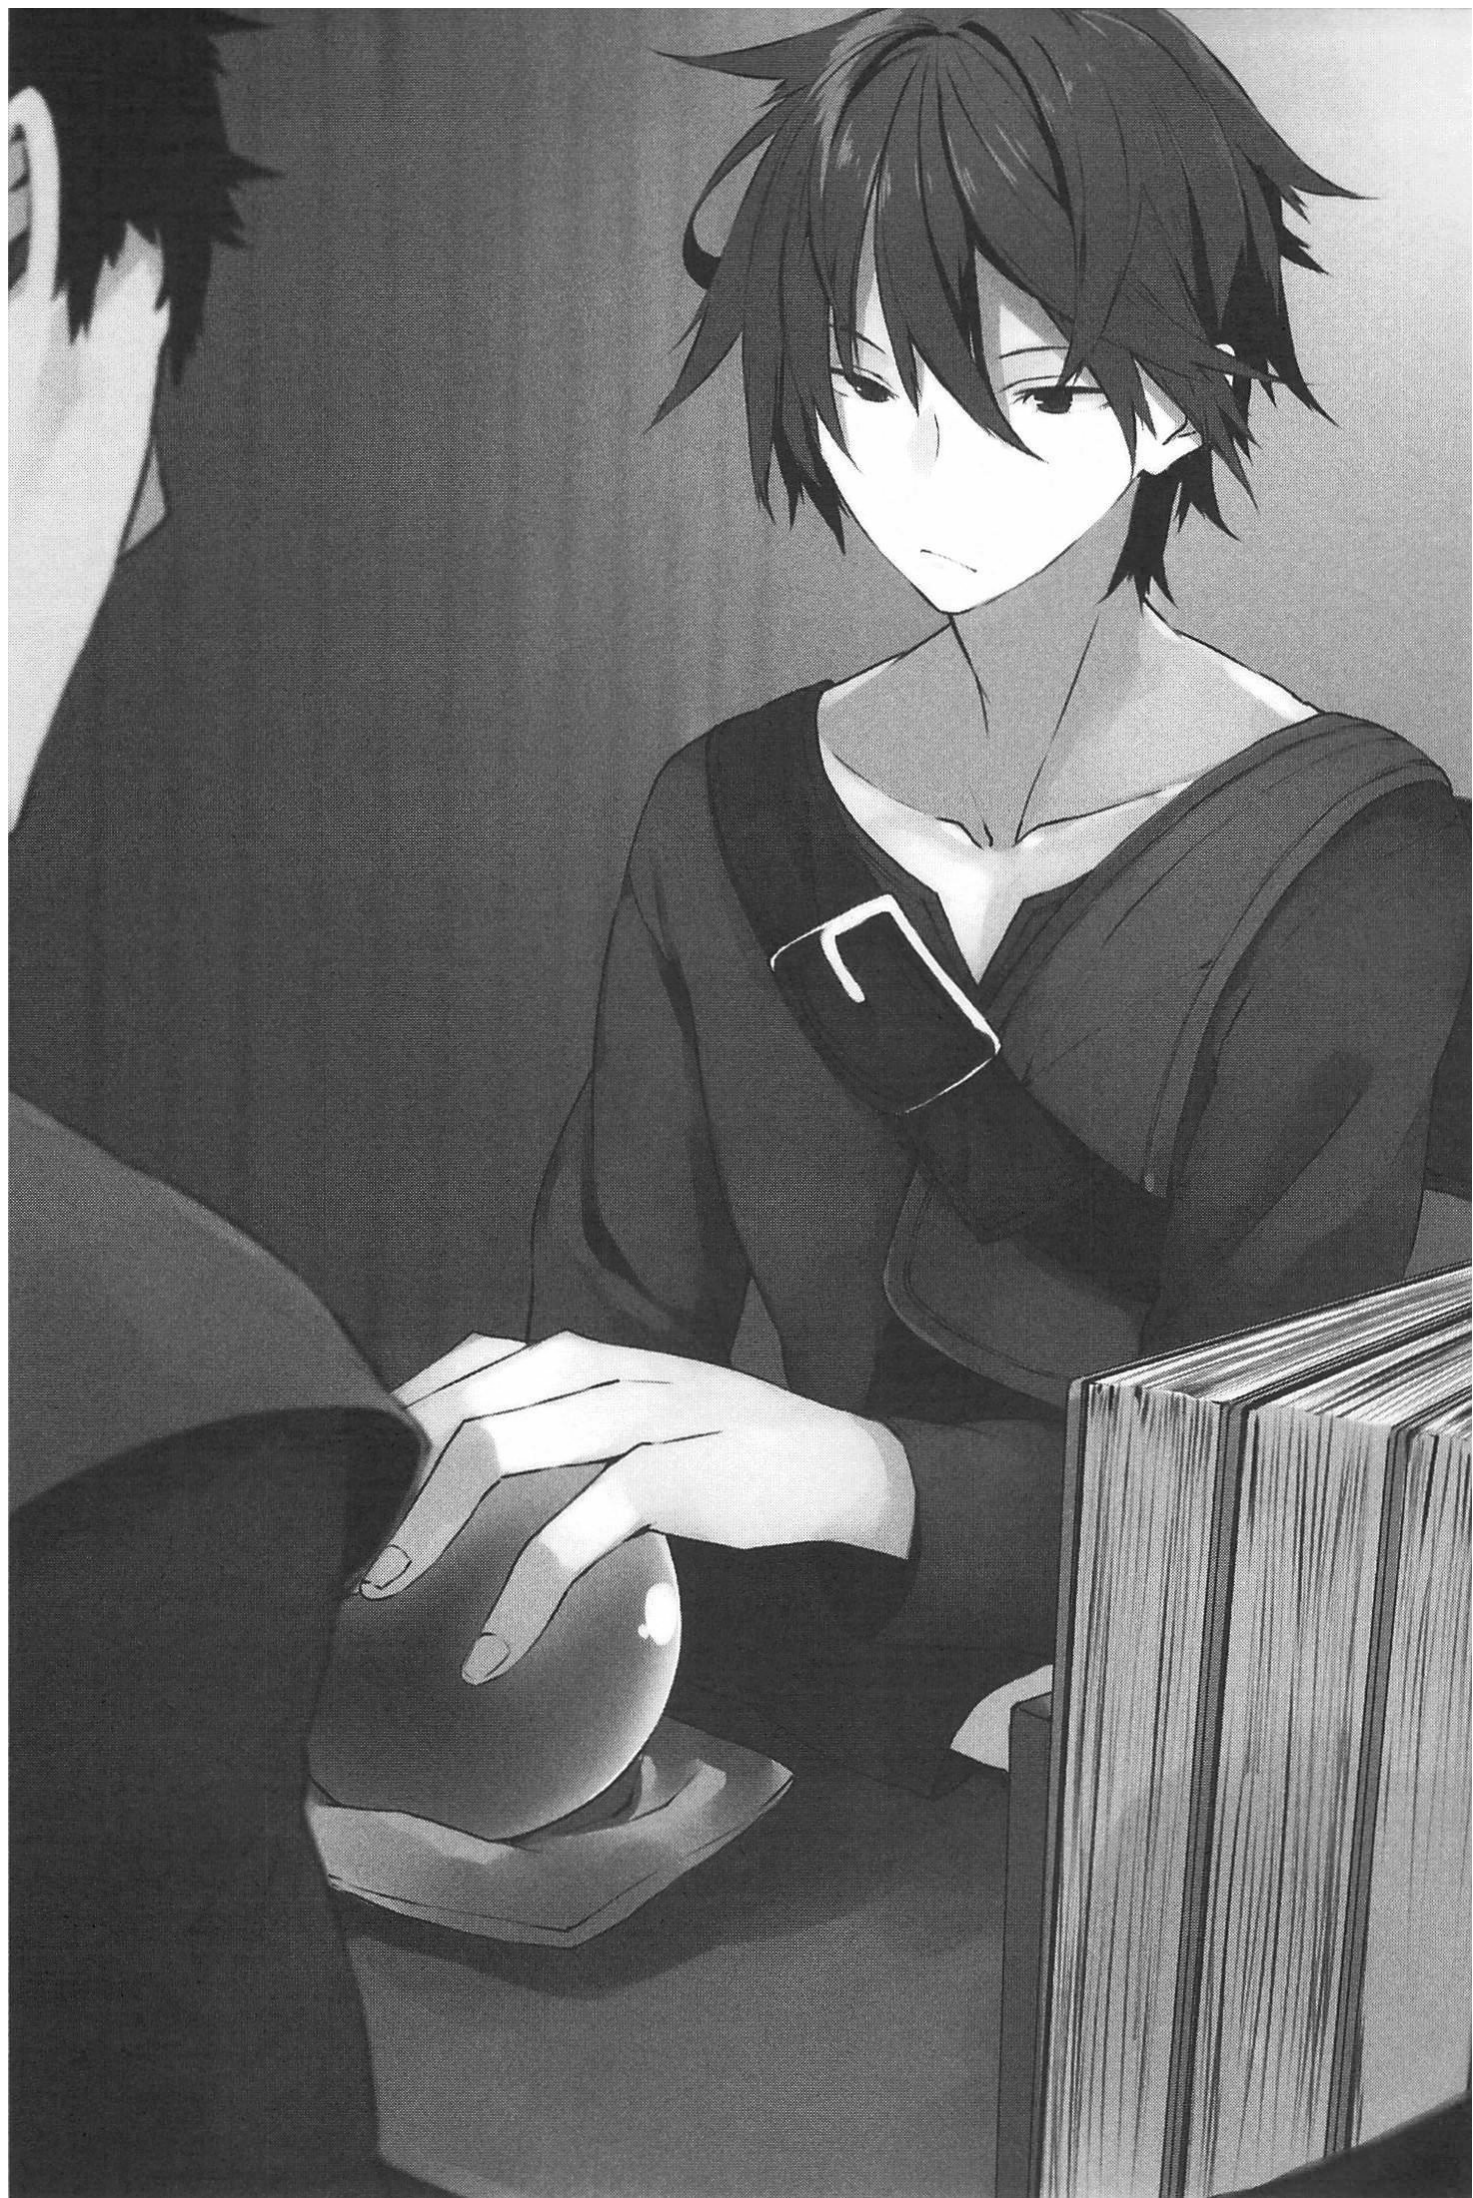

“Shikyuu (TLN : Earth in Japanese.), it’s very far, I’m sure you never heard of it.”(Taichi)

“Shikyuu is it? Surely I never heard of it before. You didn’t have stealing or murder record before right?”(Guard)

“Ah, no”(Taichi)

“Un, then place your hand on the stone and declare yourself.”(Guard)

Then I place my hand on the crystal ball on the table and speak.

“I never have a record of stealing or murder.”

At that time, the crystal ball is growing out the pale green light before it instantly gone.

The guard who saw that is writing down something on the card that has the same size as a credit card.

This stone must be a lie detector.

“So, the procedure ends here. This card is an identification for a short time stay, it's merit only 3 days after 3 days seal on this card will fade out. If you get checked in town and the seal is gone you have to pay fine for 1 silver coin, but if you don't have enough to pay you'll be turned into a slave, So be careful.”(Guard)

Just illegal lodging will make you a slave, so harsh.

But, in the world that has monsters roaming around like this, food situation might not be so good.

Troubles inside town might be getting worse by anytime.

So, they just have to put this method to use.

“And where can I get an official permit?”(Taichi)

“Fastest way is Adventurer guild or Merchant guild, but you don't look like a merchant, so better go to Adventurer guild. Location of Adventurer guild is to turn left after you enter the town.”(Guard)

After he finished he stood up.

So, It's must be over.

“Thank you, I'll take a look.”(Taichi)

“Aa, and welcome to Crossroad.”(Guard)

Then he gave me a thin smile and go back to the gate.

Chapter 2: When I go to Adventurer guild, I got knock up

The first impression of Crossroad town is, the road is very very broad.

It might be this way for carriage usage, maybe.

A road is paved with stone, building on the roadside is made of hard stone.

Everyone who crossing by look like they came from Europe, what they dressed also look like old native European clothes I once saw on TV or internet.

“Hey, don’t get in the way.”

“Ah, sorry.”(Taichi)

Because standing leisurely in middle of the street might get in others way again, I stepped out to the roadside and looking at the peoples who passed by.

They are tons of styles, but everyone has at least have one weapon at their waist.

Even children around 12-13 years old have some sort of dagger with them too.

If there’s somebody who doesn’t carry a weapon, they are wearing a black leather collar. Maybe they are slaves?

The building that is lining up by roadside also look clean, and no foul odor. The sanitary must be good too.

“Ah, excuse me, do you know where is Adventurer guild?”(Taichi)

“Oh, it’s just over there, that’s wood building”

I tried to ask gentle looking auntie who looks like she just comes back from shopping, and she instantly answered and pointing at the big wood building as she said.

“Thank you, Nee-san(Big sister)”(Taichi)

“Ahaha! And you, become a good adventurer too! Do your best!”

Because of my praise, Auntie is laughing and waved her hand.

Yosh, let' hurry.

Adventurer guild.

This is a place every fantasy world must have.

The adventurer will receive a request, gather information and then venture out.

For that reason, came the base of operation like Adventurer guild.

Adventurer guild in this might also be like that, I think.

Inside of the building, there is a lot of ruffian looking guys wearing various kind of armor.

Some gathered at the request board, some go to the bar nearby.

“Welcome to Adventurer guild. Never seen you here before, looking for some quest?”

“Nope, I’m here to register.”(Taichi)

When I finished speaking, the old man at the information counter(Who is bald and stern) are looking at me from head to toes.

I don’t feel pleasant when some old man is staring at me, stop that baldie.

“Good physique..... But will you really be alright with that getup?”(Guild’s old man)

I’m fine, mine your own.

I really wanna say that but kept it to myself.

And even if I start talking about material, I don’t know much about such thing too.

“Well, I can use a sword, fight barehanded also wind magic, I can use healing magic a little too, I’m thinking about buying my new gears after this. By the way, do you know how much is a full set of armor?”(Taichi)

“Heh—, very versatile more than you look aren’t you. If it’s a set leather armor, if you have 8 silver coins is enough”(Guild’s old man)

The money I have left on me are 1 gold coin, 2 big silver coins, 8 silver coins, 13 big copper coins, 20 copper coins.

I felt that price is little expensive, but it's also not too excessive.

"It's still on my budget, can you recommend a shop?" (Taichi) "Ah, I'll point you some shop that has a close relationship with us later, for now, let's me register you, bring out your identification." (Guild's old man)

"Can I use this?" (Taichi)

I bring out my temporary ones that I get from the gate, and old man nod.

And then we go to another room, and receive a lecture about rules and questioning me about other details.

Well, the rules are just basic common sense though.

Such as, don't use weapon and magic to make a ruckus in town. Help comrades in the guild.

Don't kill your guildmates, something like that.

"Well, it should be around this, lastly it's a test." (Guild's old man)

"Test?" (Taichi)

After listening to a lecture about half an hour, the old man spoke something like that.

I never heard of this before.

If it is a writing test, then I'm done for.

"Yeah, follow me." (Guild's old man)

And he leads me to a wide open training ground.

There is a lot of space for exercise yourself in sword or bow, depends on a person.

When the old man is leading me in, it gathered a lot of glances.

Hey, don't just look here, damn.

"Now, is there a suitable person.....Umu" (Guild's old man)

The old man is looking around.

A lot of adventurers here is taking an interest, ah there is more coming.

Hey, why the hell peoples inside guild building are coming out too, Stahpp!!

“Yosh, Ethan come here.”(Guild’s old man)

Adventurer whose old man called come out.

He is a young man with shabby looking armor.

“Can you use this?”(Ethan)

Ethan picks up two wooden swords and throws one to me, he is a good guy.

I receive it and try swinging, not bad.

“Here, please look after it for me”(Taichi)

I leave my sword to adventurer near me and begin stretching.

Well, here we go.

“Can I use magic?”(Taichi)

“If there is a chance you’ll kill him, then don’t”(Guild’s old man)

If it’s not lethal everything is okay isn’t it?

Ethan side is ready, and out on a stance.

Peanut gallery around has started betting.

“Now, the test will begin, be ready you two.”

Ethan tightens grip on his wooden sword and lowers his hip.

I also lower my hip to ready my move too.

And short silence is spread out.

“Begin!”(Guild’s old man)

Ethan shortens his distant and comes at me instantly after the old man declared.

I’m also charging at him.

It’s might because, I look like a beginner to him, in that instant his face is full of surprise.

“Ha!”(Taichi)

I’m the one who attacked first.

Horizontal slash to blow away Ethan sword on his right hand.

Ethan is backed out by half step, and swing his sword down, but it’s missed.

Slashing up, down, sweep, slant, I traded blow with Ethan for some time.

Good, I’m able to react to all his action, I’m winning.

Ethan who is now agitated, raising his sword over his head and swing it down.

I see a chance and hold a sword in two hands to receive the blow.

And kick him hardly at his opening torso.

Bam, it sounds like this.

“Ouff!?”(Ethan)

Ethan is swaying back by force, I point my left index finger at him.

Gather magic power for 3 shots.

Imagine air bullets being shot 3 shots instantly.

“Wind shot!”(Taichi)

Ethan who is still losing his stance, have received all 3 shots.

Bam

All the sound in the training ground is gone.

And I’m who still pointing my finger at Ethan haven’t moved an inChapter

Wha... Did I overdo it?

Don’t be quiet, anyone says something.

“You’re very good aren’t you”(Guild’s old man)

The old man smiles widely.

Ethan is being carried out by some peanut gallery.

“Someone else wanna try?”(Guild’s old man)

Fum every adventurer raised their wooden weapon overhead.

Hey, Isn't it too much?

"Think you're good, come at me"

"Let me taste you."

"Yaranaika?"

Leave me out please, I'll die for sure.

"You sure are popular"(Guild's old man)

I wanna kill this laughing old man.

Because it looks like fun, so he sent me 3 peoples at the same time.

Result? I got beaten up beautifully by 3 wooden swords.

If my magic isn't depleted first, there might be a chance.

"So? Did I pass?"(Taichi)

"Oh, of course, without a problem. Normally everyone starts with rank F. But for you, I give you rank E."(Guild's old man) Then, the old man gives me a metal card, there are my face and name on it.

Also adventurer rank in "E".

There is no Lv. on it.

Maybe, there is no concept of Lv.

"What is good to have a higher rank?"(Taichi)

When my magic has regenerated a little, I heal my aching part.

I won't show any manner in front of this old man anymore.

Letting a group of adventurer beat me, who doesn't have any armor to a pulp.
Do you have some humanity left in you?

"Well, If you got rank B, you got accepted by people, when you got rank A, You got admired by people, If you got S, you'll be a national hero."(Guild's old man)

“It looks far away”(Taichi)

“Of course it is. Do your best. Oh right, about recommending some shop.”(Guild’s old man)

“Well, why don’t you recommend some inn for me too, and don’t charge me for coins.”(Taichi)

Now, with this, I can forgive him a little.

“Welcome—”

I go to the weapon shop that old man at the guild recommended, there are several adventurers inside, business seems to be good.

Voice’s owner from behind the counter is a woman, she is a beauty too.

It might be because the smell of iron and leather are mixing together, inside the shop, there is a unique smell I never know before.

I take a look at the leather armor that showing in the corner.

There are elbow and knee guard, also a metal plate to enhance its durability..... As expected of high graded ones.

“Choosing your first armor is important, you need my help?”

I heard a voice from my back, there I found that beauty at counter smiling at me.

Hmm? Her ear is pointy too. Is she an elf?

“Ah. I’m Luise, This shop employee. Welcome.”(Luise)

“I’m Taichi, I’m thinking about buying leather armor.”(Taichi)

“Hmm, let me see, let me see.”(Luise)

Luise is moving her hand and touching me here and there. Whoa, you suddenly hugged me.

When I look down, I saw her emerald silver hair.

Ahh... it smells good——— No, nono. There is a lot of peoples here, don’t be a pervert, me.

By the way, other customers might aim for her too, There!

Your stare is hurting me.

“Unn...This armor should fit your alright bro. Do you want glove and knee guard in which style?”(Luise)

“Ahh.....I want something that can be used for punching and kicking too, not just for sword.”(Taichi)

“Then I’ll add some extra metal pad at elbows, knees, and knuckles might be enough. About boot, I’ll harden the tip too, but it’ll also add a little cost.”(Luise)

“If that’s not too much, it’s no problem.”(Taichi)

We talking like that, while looking at other gears.

When I look at the counter, I see a cat.

No, Not a normal cat.

It’s a slim cat which as tall as children, Is he a beast man?

And he holds pipe professionally in his hand too. Well, he looks gorgeous.

So, that is an owner, and Luise here is an employee.

For the tools I choose, I tried it on, and adjust it, I tried it on, and adjust it, for many many times.

And, after consulting with my budget. I bought leather armor set, which added an extra pad on every attacking limb.

It cost a total of 9 silvers and 6 big coppers.

“Yay, thanks for your patronage. How about some weapon too?”(Luise)

“Umm, I really want it though, but my budget..... I want a longer sword, well I can make use of wind magic instead.”(Taichi) “Well, look at your physique, you really need longer sword bro, but magic? How is your conductor?”(Luise)

“Conductor?”(Taichi)

I tilted my head at unfamiliar word.

Luise gives out an unbelievable face then let out a wry smile.

“Are you really a magician, bro? If you use magic without a conductor, I heard it will not be efficient you know.”(Luise) Then Luise goes into the shop and brings out wooden stick with her.

Look like a drumstick to me.

“The cheapest conductor in our shop is this. I don’t understand it’s principle though, but you will know the difference when you try.”(Luise)

So, I try conductor that Luise brings out with wind shot.

How should I say this?

It hard to describe in words, but the magic power that out through conductor felt [Stuck] together.

Without a conductor, it feels diffusing into thin air by itself.

“It’s different indeed, do you have something that can be used as a melee weapon too?”(Taichi)

You won’t use a drumstick to hit something, right?

It’ll break into two against sword.

“We have something like a sword, but it expensive though? How about this.”(Luise)

And Luise brings out wooden staff that’s taller than me.

Wow, it looks like something that uses with kungfu.

“This quarterstaff is also a conductor in itself. This thing is just 6 silvers”(Luise)

“I’m also buying armors too, how about some discount? 4 silver maybe”(Taichi)

“Ununu.....”(Luise)

When start negotiated for a discount, Luise is looking back at the cat on the counter.

The cat is sending back some signal.

Even though your hand is a meat button, how can you send some?

“Then all include this armor set, how about 1 gold and 4 silvers?”(Luise)

And for that reason, my money was left with 2 big silver coins, 13 big copper coins, 20 copper coins.

Um.... Look good.

There is about 20% of humans who trained to use magic. But, in reality, only half of that numbers can become a magician.

Chapter 3: When I was training, I was confessed

After I finished buying leather armor set and quarterstaff. I went back to town.

Next, the inn.

Let's look at the map on the menu first, and confirm it's location.

The inn that was recommended is not far away, so I start walking on a stone-paved road.

They're not many pointy eared people like Luise, Cat is not even be seen.

It seems like there are beastmen with animal ear and tail, but they're not that many in this town.

They're a minority, huh?

This town atmosphere is a lot like the middle age of Europe. But the stone building is more popular.

A wooden building like an adventurer guild is fewer.

A lot of stone building means there aren't any earthquake here? Because if there is one, it would a total disaster.

How many populations in this town? From the look in a map, it's look wide too. I would have taken several days to explore the town completely.

"Wow...."(Taichi)

I can't keep my voice down when I arrived at the Central Plaza.

There are a lot of people like in Tokyo, and a lot of carriages is passing by too.

Shouting voices can be heard a lot more than peoples chatting voices.

Well, either blending in a crowd of people, or risk of being run over by carriage is a No-no.

So, I decided to just walk around at the outer edge of the plaza.

Crossroad town divided into 4 districts, Northern, Eastern, Western, Southern and Central Plaza is at its center.

By the way, I'm coming from Eastern district

Eastern district is a business zone that has Adventurer guild, Merchant guild and other kinds of shops.

Northern district is for the rich. Southern on the opposite is for normal people which can also call poor people's zone.

At the Western, There is a church, government agency, and soldier barracks.

The inn which I was recommended, is in the Southern district near the Central Plaza.

It didn't take much time to find the inn.

It has a sign which has a picture of the bed, painted in deep red color, and the name is "Burning golden bed." (TLN: 灼熱の金床亭: Shakunetsu no kinshō-tei Weird name right?)

This is the place. No mistake.

When I get inside, I see the short body old man with a fully muscular body at the reception counter. Spacious zone at the back seems to be the dining hall for the guests.

When the old man saw me, he gave me a business smile.

"Welcome to Burning golden bed, you come to stay?" (Inn's old man)

"Ah, the old man at the Adventurer guild has recommended this place, how much of a one-night stay here?" (Taichi)

"If you got a recommendation from Adventurer guild, then price for one night including breakfast will be 2 big coppers and 5 copper. If you eat lunch and dinner here too, I will give some extra for free" (Inn's old man)

I still don't know about money rates in this world.

But if I compare this price to weapons and armor I just bought, it doesn't seem expensive.

"For now, 10 days stay please." (Taichi)

“Then it’s 2 silvers and 5 big coppers.”(Inn’s old man)

I’m starting to understand this, 10 coppers = 1 big copper, 10 big coppers = 1 silver.

And from shopping at the weapon store, I know that 10 silvers = 1 gold.

Then this big coin with a hole in the middle is 1 big silver = 5 silvers.

Let’s try.

“Are these enough?”(Taichi)

“Big silver coin is it? Then changes will be 2 silvers and 5 big coppers. I will be checking you in, so lend me your adventurer card”(Inn’s old man)

My guessed was right.

After this, I just need to understand how much 1 copper coin worth. Then I’ll understand this world economy better.

And my purse is now thin, Next immediate issue is to gather information for earning money.

Also about conductor thing before. If I don’t know basic common sense in this world, I might get into trouble soon.

“Hoi—Pinea! Come and lead guess to his room!”(Inn’s old man)

After he finished writing down details from the adventurer card, the old man called out for someone from the dining hall.

He is so loud....If I consider his height and high energy, He might not be human but a dwarf or something.

“Ye—s!”(Pinea)

Young girl with cute apron running out from the dining hall, while energetically replied.

So small, she must be around 10 years old? Her height isn’t even reached my waist.

“Guess-san, I’ll show you the room, come here come here”(Pinea)

The girl, Pinea lead me to the 2nd floor.

The stair step is so short, it must be designed for the inn owner.

The room I got has a window on the roadside.

There's not enough light at this time, but in the evening, sunlight will shine through the room. The bed is clean too, I can rest at this place with no problem.

Is the room around 5 tatamis? But it has the bed too, so it doesn't look too spacious.

Even if table beside the window that faced roadside look so plain, we still have one. It must be for writing and work, maybe.

"This is a good room, the bed is clean too."(Taichi)

"You can expect for food too, dwarf's meal is a good match for an adventurer."(Pinea)

Pinea smile cheerfully.

That smile makes you feel relaxed.

With that enthusiasm, I should give a good reply.

"I would like to have some lunch right away, is that okay?"(Taichi)

"Of course, and we'll add some extra too."(Pinea)

I receive room key from her and put it in inventory together with the quarterstaff, then going downstairs.

At the dining hall I see a lot of adventurer like peoples, did they stay here too?

When I take a glance at their equipment, they look a lot more experienced. In contrast, I look like a newbie who just wore his first armor.

"Here is today's lunch set, it's 3 coppers"(Pinea)

When Pinea placed food tray on the table, I gave her 3 copper coins and starting my first another world meal.

The menu is fried cabbage-like vegetable with some animal intestines, vegetable soup, and black bread.

Fried vegetable taste like miso, it's strong but delicious. That cabbage-like thing is gone through fire properly, intestine also has a good smell like kinds of garlic.

On the opposite, soup is bland and bread is hard, I need to soak it in soup before I can be eating it. And look like other people also do this too.

Also, It looks like soup is the “extra”.

“Well. what’s to do next”(Taichi)

Should I rest for today, or should I stroll around the town?

When I think about it, I still haven’t tried pressing all button on the menu. Let’s go back to the room and try it.

And if there is still some time after, I should go and train with quarterstaff at the Adventurer Guild. Or hunt some boar is also not a bad idea.

“I’m full, so I’ll go back to my room.”(Yaichi)

“Ye-s”(Pinea)

After I call out to Pinea who is working in the kitchen, I go back to my room.

When I open the menu, I find out that I’ve leveled up. From the test maybe?

STR, AGI, VIT is rising up, is this work of Physical enhancement skill? But DEX isn’t moved in Chapter

Raising in POW seem normal, it’s the same as physical training, Max HP become 69, MP becomes 164.

Looking at it again, maybe it goes after VIT and POW because digits that have been raised are 13 and 17.

To sum it up, rise status this time can’t tell me anything, and I still can’t figure out its principle.

Also, I gain another 6 skill points. I want to raise some skill to Lv.3, but for now, let’s go for diversity.

Too vigilant? No, it’s good like this. I don’t want any risk, efficiently is the best cause I don’t want to die.

For quarterstaff handling, I raise my Polearm skill to Lv.2. The rest 3 point is distributed to Magic power, Magic recovery and Non-elemental magic to Lv.1.

Just raising Magic power by 1 Lv. It spikes up from 164 to 246, it's rising by 1.5 times just like Physical enhancement skill.

I thought POW would rise up to, but it's just MP.

I try to calculate my MP recovery time, from before it needs full day to fill up my loss MP.

It also rises up by 1.5 times too.

Currently, it's 4 minutes per 1 MP.....I still can't shoot magic like Gatling gun.

I need to think about the solution.

Non-elemental magic to Lv.1, let me use magic called "Magic arrow". I try to shoot it in the air 1 time.

Seem like it just normally shot out non-elemental magic arrow. But because of that, it can be used on any target.

When I finished learning and leveling up skills, I try pressing a button on the menu.

Just as I try pressing, there is an option to leave widgets on.

So, I set to left Hp and MP, direction and minimap on.

Let's try checking inventory details.

First adventure set.

Which is a bag filled with various tools for adventuring, such as blankets, torch, lighter, knife, 10-meter rope.

Next is remaining money, 1 big silver coin. 6 silver coins, 18 big copper coins, 17 copper coins.

And there is 1 Small boa's leather, 1 Small boa's meat, 2 Small boa's corpses, 1 Big hornet's corpse.

Remaining are dried fruit, dried meat, 3 packs of crispy bread and 1 leather bag for storing water.

I don't know how many I can store because there are no weight shows. It looks like it can ignore size and weight of a stored items.

Also, If I lump items together in the same package it will be counted as 1, just like adventure set.

2 Small boa's corpses are also in the same slot, it's convenient.

I just remembered that carriage in town still needs to put the same thing on top of each other.

It's mean this ability can't be seen as normal.

But I still need to investigate just to know, that people can accept it or not.

I'll try to bring out items from inventory at some shop.

After that, I continuing to press menu buttons till 3 p.m.

What I get is, if I put an item in tool slots, If I just think about it, it'll be ready in my hand.

Only God calls, that I've not touched.

I can just take it easy and lie on the bed, but let's go check some quests at Adventurer guild, to see what it look like.

Corpses, leather, meat, I wanna sell it out if possible.

Well..., do I need salt to tend the meat?

Anyway, if I left it like this, will it rot?

Un, there is still a lot to learn.

I told old man and Pinea who is preparing dinner, that I'll go to Adventurer guild in loud voice and leave.

Mp is 37 left. It has the same amount at the time when I just come to the guild.

"Ohh, you look more like an adventurer."(Guild's old man)

When I entered, that same old man at the information counter is calling out to me so I waved back at him for a little formality, and take a look at the quest that was pinned on a board.

There is also safe quest like doing chores in town to patrol around townscape.

When I realized, I can just read everything normally, whatever.

Next is subjugate monsters or dangerous beast around here, difficult is varies, but it already has restrict placed on.

Just as I thought, dangerous ones are the quest that wants you to go somewhere uncharted.

Or monster subjugation.

When I look around for some finishable quest, I spot a Small boa hunt quest.

Look like it will be turned into food.

It requests 1 full body.

I took request notice out form board and show it to the old man at the information counter.

“Old man, this quest please.”(Taichi)

“I’m Ulz, let me see? Hunt some Small boa huh? If you’re being careful then it should be fine.”(Ulz)

“Truth is, I’m already done.”(Taichi)

Then I take out Small boa’s corpse from inventory and place it on the counter.

“WHOA!! Hey, it will dirty the counter! Take it to specify counter that way!”(Ulz)

“Sorry”(Taichi)

I apologize normally and put corpse back to inventory.

Old man leaves the counter and I follow him.

When we arrive at specify counter for receiving quest items, I took out Small boa’s corpse again.

It’s still warm because I store it away instantly after I’ve killed it?

That's mean the flow of time stopped in the inventory.

"You have treasure box too? It's rare."(Ulz)

"Treasure box?"(Taichi)

When I asked back, old man Ulz is surprised.

"If you don't have one, how can you took out a corpse? Is that not treasure box?"(Ulz)

"W..well, It's called treasure box huh? I studied magic with my grandpa in the countryside, and he called it an inventory."(Taichi)

"Hoh..... Well, I didn't know much much about magic anyway."(Ulz)

Old man Ulz didn't think too much about it and checking out the corpse.

When he finished checking, he calls out other guild's employer to take the Small boa's corpse away.

"Un, No probs, quest finished."(Ulz)

Old man Ulz apply seal on the request notice and gave me a reward, 5 big copper coins.

Ho, pay rate is good.

"I still have 1 Small boa's corpse with 1 leather pelt, also 1 Giant hornet's corpse too. Won't you buy it too?"(Taichi)

"Ah, let's me take a look at it first. If it's in a good shape, I'll buy it at the same 5 big coppers."(Ulz)

"I leave it to you."(Taichi)

I'm thinking of how to get dispose of its, and now I got 5 big copper coins from just deliver it, today I got total of 1 silver coin.

It makes me think, being an adventurer is not too bad at finding money.

"Just on the first day, you already have done this muChapter I have high hope for you."(Ulz)

Old man Ulz is smiling widely and slap at my shoulder, then he go back to the information counter.

His smiling face is making me uneasy.....

He'll do unreasonable things for sure.

Let's toss troublesome things aside and go train.

Piecing, pry, beat down, swinging, sweeping while doing a spin kick to the back, jump, and piece, fill the gap with magic attack..... Um, it's easier to use than I thought.

Polearm skill can be used with spear and long handle weapons too, isn't this nicer than Sword skill?

Problem is, it harder to use in narrow place.

"Fuu"(Taichi)

When I've confirmed all my move, I sit at the bench on the corner of the training ground.

Un, I shoulda bought some towel.

When I think about it, I still don't have spare clothes.

Let's go buy some.

"Umm... Can I take a bit of your time?"

While thinking with water bag in hand, someone called out to me.

When I look up I see a girl wearing a leather armor.

Red-brown hair ties up in a ponytail, big round eyes that reflecting curiosity, and well-shaped face, she is a very beautiful girl.

Because her face is of European, so I can't really tell her ages. But it shouldn't be above 20.

"Well, what is it?"(Taichi)

I put water bag back to inventory, and look around hastily.

There is two person looking here with weird gaze.

"Umm....I....."(Red-brown haired girl)

She looks down and trembles.

At first, I thought she was a swindler, but that might not be the case.

“Ah.....Tell me”(Taichi)

When I said that, she raised her face.

“PLEASE GO OUT WITH ME!”(Red-brown haired girl)

Training ground becomes quiet instantly.

And there is warm gaze here and there.

How the hell that it's become like this.

Crossroad's populations are about 10,000.

There are about 500 adventurers, and half of it are Rank E adventurers.

Chapter 4: I got to ate something delicious on the first day

“First, Calm down.”(Taichi)

“Y, Yes... I’m so sorry.....”(Red-brown haired girl)

The red-brown haired girl is shrinking down sadly.

And after that, we left the training ground and settle ourselves at the guild’s bar.

The red-brown haired girl slowly drinks some juice(Which I bought) meekly.

“Well, what is all this about, if you calmed then can you tell me?”(Taichi)

“Erm....I just became an adventurer not too long ago, but I’m too afraid to hunts monster alone. But when I tried to join some parties.....”(Red-brown haired girl)

She looks pity with those explanations.

Well, I get the gist of it.

“And it’s not going too smoothly right?”(Taichi)

“Yes.....There are some of the parties that let me joins, but.....”(Red-brown haired girl)

“They have hidden aims too right?”(Taichi)

“Yes, but I’m always able to flee, by hair’s breadth though.” (Red-brown haired girl)

She signed after replied to me.

The reason must be that she is this cute, it makes every male have one or two hidden aims in their mind.

And you know that she is weak, and she wants you to take her out of the town, which have no other peoples.

If they mind clouded by lust, she can’t be possible to resist.

They just need to surround her, then it's over.

"Then why me? I'm happy though, but I'm also male, I might do something bad to you too, you know"(Taichi)

How can you be able to survive til now, this girl?

She is that type of girl that got duped and violated, then got discarded.

"Not a problem at all! I'm sharp with these sort of things! And someone who spoke about this sort of thing, won't really gonna do what he spoke!"(Red-brown haired girl)

And you tell him that in the face?

"So? Thanks for trusting me, but I don't trust you."(Taichi)

I also want [people on this side] as my friend too.

But aren't this talk going too smoothly? This is not just some eroge, right?

Ou... I gotta help this weak little girl! Just like that?

"Don't you worry this girl can be trusted, I can vouch for her."(Ulz)

Old man Ulz also gives her a helping hand.

He is drinking an ale at the nearby table, did you called it a day already?

But if there is a guild's employer back her up, I can trust her a little.

"I understood, but why me? I want an explanation."(Tachi)

"Well, you're good at both sword at staff, can also use magic? I saw you test at this noon, and it amazing when you fought on par with several Rank C at the same time, if that is a normal newbie like me, We'll be out cold in a mere second."(Red-brown haired girl)

Is that so? I send a questioning gaze at old man Ulz, and he nods to confirm it.

"Even if you're a magic user, normally it took around 10 seconds to chant, and also the one who is good at both sword and magic like you are rarer. Someone like that is always wanted. "(Ulz)

Is that so.

I'm just Lv.2 and I'm now uncommon.

Don't get overconfident, me. It'll trouble you later.

"I get it now, sorry for suspecting you. I just came from the countryside, don't know much of common sense here so I took a precaution. I'm Taichi, nice to meet you"(Taichi)

I offered her a handshake, she gives me back a full smiled face and shakes my hand.

"I'm Marl! I'll be in your care from now on!!"(Marl)

So cheerful, just watching this is a bliss.

Old man Ulz who saw it end in a good way, walk away to the other table.

You read the mood, huh? Old man.

"By the way, where are you staying, Taichi-san. I'm staying at the inn near this guild."(Marl)

"I'm staying at 'Buring golden bed', near the Central Plaza. Old man Ulz recommends that place to me, 1 night with breakfast is 2 big coppers and 5 coppers. If you want to have a meal besides breakfast it's 3 coppers, you'll get 1 main dish with bread and soup for an extra. I think you can be content with both quality and quantity."(Taichi)

"Ummm..... The rent is more expensive, but the food term is better. What about the room?"(Marl)

"It's clean, bed sheet is also clean, the door lock is tight and the room is also considerably large."(Taichi)

"Then tomorrow I'll go there too, can you tell them?"(Marl)

"Yeah, I'll notify them. What about tomorrow schedule? Tomorrow morning, I wanna go buy some daily necessities, and look at some quest here."(Taichi)

"If it's not a bother, can I also go? I can show you the way around."(Marl)

"Is that so? then I'll take up your offer. To tell you the truth, I feel a little anxious to walk alone."(Taichi)

"Taichi-san is strong, even if you got surrounded by ruffians, you'll deal with them in a flash."(Marl)

“Stop with the compliment, you’re overestimating me too muChapter
”(Taichi)

If you look at me with that sparkling admiration eyes, I’ll get embarrassed.

It’s just a power from a cheat.

It doesn’t come from hard working.

“And what will you do after this today?”(Marl)

“Ah, It’s this late? I’m thinking about continuing to move myself a little. Right, is there a bathhouse or something alike around here?”(Taichi)

And I remember that the inns have no bathroom too.

“There is one, but it’s in the Northern district for the rich people usage, if poor adventurer like me go there, they will just kick me out.”(Marl)

“So, It’s regrettable.”(Taichi)

“But at the back of training ground, there’s a place to wash yourself up. Adventurers often go there to wash their sweat after training.”(Marl)

“I get it, I’llgo out and buy some towel and spare trunks for changing first.”(Taichi)

“They also selling daily necessities for adventurers at the counter too.”(Marl)

For real? Adventurer guild is convenient.

Then I hurry and buy some cheap towel, trunks, and soaps.

It’s cost me 3 copper coins, soap is expensive.

After that. I continuing to train.

It’s sword this time.

If an enemy is closing up in range and quarterstaff is no use, so the sword is a better choice. the same reason for when you fight in a narrow place like a cave.

“Marl, which weapon that you’re good at?”(Taichi)

I try asking Marl who is watching me train nearby.

Her eyes are swimming around restlessly.

“Ehh....Sword, maybe?”(Marl)

“What is with ‘maybe’..... Then try holding this wooden sword, how about it you know how to wield it, right?”(Taichi)

I got a very bad feeling.

Marl, who is holding the sword face this way.

But her waist is bent and shaking.

“First, try coming at me”(Taichi)

“Y, Yesss!! TAAAA!!”(Marl)

She is faster than I thought.

But she is not using her waist, and the slash is slow.

I easily moved aside and hit her shoulder with a wooden sword.

“Auu”(Marl)

“Your waist bent too much, hurry and come!”(Taichi)

“U, Wahhhhh”(Marl)

This time, she’s charging while randomly swinging her sword around.

Hey, hey, your eyes are closed. I moved aside and blocking her leg.

She is falling down on her face.

“.....Let’s, just forget about what we talk before.”(Taichi)

“Waitwaitwaitwait!! You gonna just leave me here!?”(Marl)

Marl threw a wooden sword away and clinging to my leg.

Let the girl weeping while clinging to your leg is embarrassing, but nope, count me out.

“I don’t have time to walk with a hindrance. Give up on being an adventurer and go back home.”(Taichi)

“Uwahh, you heartless! You’re being so kind to me before but you’re going to leave me now!?”(Marl)

Whisper, whisper Training ground is in chaos.

There are peoples who know the story and sending some warm gaze.

There are peoples who saw Marl face and send me scornful gaze like it saying 'Normie go die!' too.

My head hurt.

I grit my teeth and try to hold out the urge to hit her head with my fist.

I pull Marl up by the cuff.

Marl height is just around 150cm. and I'm around 175cm., our height is different by head size.

"Listen to me, Marl. I can use sword, staff, and magic even though it's my first day as an adventurer. But I'll climb higher and higher and it impossible to avoid danger, you get that right?"(Taichi)

Marl is nodding with a tearful face.

Ugh, a mental attack is cheating, Marl.

"And when that time comes, can you protect yourself? Sorry, but I'm not strong enough to help someone who can't even look after herself."(Taichi)

"T, That is....."(Marl)

"And another thing. a partner you team up with must be equals. I can guarantee your safety, but what can you do for me?"(Taichi)

"B, Baggages carrier....."(Marl)

I put back quarterstaff to the inventory before her eyes, and took out an adventurer set, then put it back again.

Peanut gallery around is raising an applause, but this is not the time to mind it.

"As you can see, I can use treasure box too. Baggage carrier is not needed."(Taichi)

"T, Then how about chores....."(Marl)

"Do you think, just by doing chores you'll get part of reward from subjugating monster is proper?"(Taichi)

When Marl is oppressed by my word, she is looking down silently.

Can you guess the conclusion now? Both warm and scornful gaze is decreased.

My theories seem to be touched.

“Then...”(Marl)

“Then?”(Taichi)

mumble, mumble I can't hear her mumbles, so I ask.

I shouldn't have asked her, I should've just walked away.

Marl clenched her fists and raise her face up to look at me in the eye.

“Then if Taichi-san guarantees my safety, I will give Taichi-san my everything!!!”(Marl)

Then all of the seniors around us, grab the wooden sword and coming at me right away.

No more, this girl.

After shocking conversation 30 minutes ago, I rest my head on the table at the guild's information counter.

Please do something.

Please just do somethingggggggggggggggg.

“Ukukuku.....Gahahahahahaha! You have some damn bad luck!!”(Ulz)

Old man Ulz is laughing hard while hitting my back.

I'll make you cry someday, you damn old man.

For Marl who is the source of all this, go back to the inns she is staying for hurry up and moving to the inn where I stay.

Me? I received kindness guidance from smiling seniors after Marl has run out.

“I have some burden now.”(Taichi)

“Even you say burden, but she is quite good, you know?”(Ulz)

“She can’t even hold a sword? Can she even use magic?”(Taichi)

Look like a total burden.

“She can’t fight but she is quite knowledgeable, and have quick wit too.”(Ulz)

Really?

If you’re not suited for a fight, why don’t you become some sort of intel or something?

“I’m sorry for making you wait!”(Marl)

Pan! Marl slam the guild’s door open.

Ah, um, so energetic.

“Let’s hurry and go, my luggage is heavy too.”(Marl)

When I got invited, I just stood up and took her luggage.

It’s heavy as she said.

Why is woman luggage must always heavy abundant?

“Let’s go”(Taichi)

“Y-Yes!”(Marl)

She is smiling happily and followed.

I heard cheering at the back too but ignored it.

Because if I stay here, I can’t convince her.

How should I say this, I feel like I’m playing chess and just getting cornered.

When we leave the guild, the sky is turned red and it’ll soon become night.

The trading end for today, vendors are closing their stall.

The bar is lightened up bright and attracting men.

I and Marl walked in this atmosphere.

What face this I show now?

And when I took a peek at her, our eyes met.

She is blushing a little with happiness and smiling embarrassingly.

Shit!! Too damn cute!!!!!!!

We have nothing to talk about, so we walk silently til we reach the Burning golden bed.

“Welcome back”(Inn’s old man)

When we come in, the owner is greeting at me.

And when he saw Marl at my side, he making [HMM?] face.

Then Marl step ahead, choose a room huh?

She needs to place her luggage there isn’t it.

“From this day on, I belong to Taichi-san! So I “What the hell are you talking.” it HURT HURT HURT HURT HURT HURT HURT!”(Ma(Taichi)rl)

I clawed her head from the back.

I can’t let her lead the conversation, I need to remember this.

“Owner-san, I’m sorry but she is gonna stay here from now, so please find a room”Ah, I want the same room as Taichi-sa—HURT HURT!” for her.”(Tai(Marl)chi)

“.....Is separate good? We have double room too.”(Inn’s old man)

“I want that room—! IT REALLY HURTTTTT! PLEASE STAHPPP!!”(Marl)

“Different room for her is good! We’ll go eat dinner, so I leave that luggage to you. We’ll go eat!”(Taichi)

Then me, who is still clawed Marl’s head drag her to a dining hall.

Even if we got a lot of attention but it’s good, I don’t care anymore.

“Uuu..My head hurt, meanie.”(Marl)

“I have a mountain of things to talk with you..... Pinea! Give me 2 set of a meal and drinks.”(Taichi)

Pinea who is still busy answer with [Gotcha], and go to the kitchen.

Marl look at that with interest.

“Let’s hear about your evil’s plan first. Answer me straight, Why me? There are stronger peoples right?”(Taichi)

Even if old man Ulz say I can trust her, but I really can't.

Don't know what to say, but she is hiding something for sure.

“Taichi-san isn't some retired knight or mercenary right?” (Marl)

“That's right, but don't answer questions with a question.”(Taichi)

“Well, You don't have any experience but you're this strong. It's nothing ordinary, everyone who sees that will realize immediately that's you're full of talents.”(Marl)

For me who still don't know about a standard of this world, can't agree or disagree with her opinion. Even in my common sense is impossible but this is another world.

“Then why the reward is giving all you have to me? That surely is normal, think about common sense. And what are young girls in this age are thinking, giving your everything to a man? Even though I said it at the training ground, but I'm also a man.”(Taichi)

“If a help from Taichi-san can make me an adventurer, then Taichi-san can enjoy my body to your heart content every day. If we both profitable then it's a win-win situation isn't it?”(Marl)

“Aren't you embarrassing!? And you present yourself too much, this side is too damn surprised!”(Taichi)

While we're talking, Pinea placed food tray on the table while speak [Take your time—] and gone.

“For the record, I never told anyone before Taichi-san. I'm still virgin!!!”(Marl)

“Shut up!”(Taichi)

I roll pasta up with a fork.

My head is hurting again.

“Why the hell that you want to be adventurer this much? You can even sell yourself, so can you tell me your reason, or else I can't really believe you.”(Taichi)

Dinner's menu is Neapolitan pasta like thing and soup with salad.

And the drink is something I never drank before.

It's not too bitter and got a nice fruity smell.

I never drank alcohol in the former world, but are this ale? I can feel the alcohol.

"Truth is I'm a princess of a country that's a little far from here."(Marl)

"Heh—"(Taichi)

I respond while shoving salad into my mouth.

"I'm at marriageable age 2 years ago, so there is a talk about engagement. But the male side is a prince from the nearby country that has a rumor of being a douchebag."(Marl)

"Ho— So you don't like the sound of that, so you run away from the castle and became adventurer you have been dreaming of, right?"(Taichi)

I heard a lot of this kind.

A plot, plot.

"How can you know that Taichi-san! This is it, right! Adventurer POWER! Let me resume because I don't wanna go back, so I want to be with Taichi-san who have a bright future, if it went smoothly we can build a concrete life foundation!"(Marl)

"It's ended the same as before!? And if you really are a princess as you said, If I lay a hand on you isn't it GAME OVER for me!"(Taichi)

"You don't have to think too much about it, and if we talk about the highest dream of an adventurer isn't it to get to lay a hand on a princess or becoming king doesn't it?"(Marl)

"The story about getting one at the first town on the first day, I never heard of it before!!!"(Taichi)

I shout and slam at the table, a mug is flying a bit there.

Maa, It's not like I'm not pleased with Marl.

Eyes full of determination, Red-brown haired tie in ponytails seem flowing.

A height that is shorter than me for 1 head, her breast is of the modest size which is to my liking.

A face, a habit, a style, is all hit my strike zone.

“Which part are you not satisfied with me!? It’s weird that I’m saying this myself, but I’m confident that I’m a beauty!”(Marl)

Are you sailors wearing warriors(TLN : Sailors moon pun)

Marl who finished eating pasta are ordering something from Pinea.

Pinea made a surprised face but whispering something to Marl, then she is grinning before gone back to counter.

What was that for, well whatever.

“Even so, you can’t be adventurer even by that kind of reason, you’ll die. Just obediently go home. There is a family waiting for you too.”(Taichi)

“I won’t go back, at least in this 3 years, because when 3 years have passed, my little sister will be at marriageable age. so I can send her as prey for that douche bag prince instead.”(Marl)

“You’re worse than I think!?”(Taichi)

I tsukomi Marl who can speak that kind of story with a poker face.

And then Pinea place something that looks like whiskey bottle on the table

It’s a pink transparent liquid, with a sweet smell.

“Well, well, just took a sip.”(Marl)

Then Marl pours some for me.

It likes alcohol, but easier to drink.

I can taste a softly sweet, it like a juice more than a liquor.

“It easy to drink, what is this.”(Taichi)

“It called nectar, It’s easy to drink right?”(Marl)

Marl told me while smiling funnily.

If you smile like that and be quiet you look a lot cuter.

Damn, so cheating.

“No matter what I’m not gonna touch you and won’t cooperate with you. And next time don’t do this, you’ll have a hard time”(Taichi)

“Such as?”(Marl)

“This thing, you’re doing, eating and drinking together with male till drunk, you’ll be sorry if something happens.”(Taichi)

Mu, when I realized, my mug is empty.

And when I going to refill it, Marl do that for me.

Her smile is full of her face, What is that?

“Taichi-san is so unbalanced.”(Marl)

“Ahh?”(Taichi)

“Even you’re unfriendly but you’re worried, Even you’re more matured but somehow you have a childish side.”(Marl)

I don’t know she is praising me or not.

But this Nectar sure is delicious.

“But to me, Taichi-san is should be worried?”(Marl)

“Which part?”(Taichi)

“That part where you told me to be careful, but you’re not”(Marl)

Kiii My view starting to distorting.

I try to shook my head, but it’s still here.

“Yh...YHUUU.....”(Taichi)

“Please don’t worry, just count the stains on the ceiling and it will end! Don’t be afraid!”(Marl)

Marl cheerful tone is so charming.

This Nectar isn’t just some strong liquor but also have this sort of effect too!

“YHU HAFT PANNED DIS.....(You have planned this?)”(Taichi)

I can't speak normally, my view is spinning.

Marl call out to Pinea and give her a thumb up.

I can't hear what they say but Pinea is grinning widely, She is an accomplice!

Adventurer around is started to making merry too.

Hey, stop it! Rape is a crime, you know!

“LEMEMBERR DIS YHUU TOO”(Taichi)

My body doesn't have strength.

Marl who is smiling to the ear is carried my top half. And Pinea is carried my lower half.

And I got carried out of dining hall like that.

That I see Owner.

“HELVE....YHUU KANT HAV DIS HUPPEN”(Taichi)

“We also have an extra sheet”(Inn's old man.)

I don't want this extra!

At least just stop Marl! Are this inn backing a rape!

“If you really don't want this then I won't took a hand. But after listening to you two. you're just pretending. You're not honest, Onii-san”(Pinea)

Pinea who is on my legs spoke.

It's true that Marl is my spec. But, it's a different story!!

I try to resist as hard as I can, but I can move only just a little.

“Then, take your time.....”(Pinea)

Pinea is waving here and leaving the room

What is left inside room is Marl who is holding on to Nectar bottle with smile face.

When she put the bottle in my mouth then my consciousness vanish.

I opened my eye up.

Unfamiliar ceiling.

Yeah, this is an inn.

How long did I sleep.

“Unya.....”

I heard a voice nearby

And there is something warm wrapping around my arm.

The one who is sleeping beside me is the red-brown haired girl whose face is full of happiness while hugging my arm.

The higher skin temperature of other person felt so good.

Felt good?

“!?!?!?!?!?!?!?!?!?”(Taichi)

I leaped my upper half fup.

There is an only thin blanket that covers us up.

And below that is naked me, with a naked girl.

On a bed sheet, there is a red stain———

“Ufufufu.....Good morning, Taichi-san”(Marl)

“WAHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH”(Taichi)

I’m done for.

Chapter 5: Adventuring is the very profitable business

“Mou, You’re so cold? Even though you share a bed with a beautiful girl last night, you’re screaming.”(Marl)

Marl pulled a wry face and poking my chest with her finger, and now I’m so shocked that my heart might fly away somewhere right now.

AHHH, I can’t remember a damn thing.

“You’re very energetic while doing it though.....”(Marl)

“.....For real?”(Taichi)

“Yeah, when I said I’m afraid, then you hugged and pulled me from the back

“Ehhh.....Sorry, please leave out details.” “(Marl(Taichi))

What is done, It’s done.

Even though I really want to run away, but now I can’t.

Human needs to face reality.

Wait, doesn’t because I want to run away from the reality that I’m coming here?

Didn’t I want a freedom, so I came here?

And I’m finished on just a first day, I wanna die.

But well, that and this is different.

I’ve done it anyway, I need to take responsibilities.

Marl is also cute.

“.....Is your body okay?”(Taichi)

Marl is surprised with my remark.

Sure thing it is, just a minute before I’m still spacing out.

Don’t worry, I’m fast as switching mood.

“Eh.... Aren’t you angry?”(Marl)

Ah, that one. I get it now.

Well, aren’t you the one who forced me down?

You do can reflect on it, aren't you?

"Being angry won't get me anywhere, right? Even your way of doing a thing is no good, but it is done anyway. Your resolution passes through me, it's my loss."(Taichi)

When I'm caressing her face with my hand. She closes her lovely eye and hugs me.

Damn cute.

Even though I do want a revenge, but I got to be with this cute girl. Even if there is a troublesome situation ahead, I will get through it.

I can do it, It's Very Easy Mode, No problems.

"Let's get up, If we aren't doing any requests, we won't get money."(Taichi)

"Ye-s"(Marl)

Marl crawling out of bed naked and slowly dress up by picking up clothes that scatter around the floor one by one.

OH.....What is this, it's erotic.

Well, when you look at the naked girl getting dressing up piece by piece, it's so stimulating.

"Mou...What are you looking at.....? Or are you getting horny again?"(Marl)

"Shut up"(Taichi)

I move my eyes away from Marl who is smiling and also get dressed up.

And Marl has left the room.

She went to pick up her luggage maybe.

I need to focus too.

When I go downstairs, Owner Old man is calling out to me.

"Good work, there is a well at the back, go wash your face there."(Inn's old man)

He spoke with a smile.

When I see an eye that seems like he knows everything, I got worked up a little, damn.

But I just pick up a soap and go to well at the back without saying anything.

Washing my face and my body a little.

Then Marl joined up, so I gave her a soap.

“Is this okay?”(Marl)

“I won’t give you if it wasn’t”(Taichi)

I poked her head with my fist then go to the dining hall.

There is a guess that already eating breakfast and Pinea who is serving a meal.

When I stepped in every eye turned to me.

Then everyone shows me their fist with thumb between index and middle finger, even though it’s another world, the gesture is still the same.

Fuck you all.

“Hey, how’s it. When you reached clima-it hurthurthurthurthurt!!”(Pinea)

I’m doing iron claw on Pinea’s head, who is a representative of all guess in the inn, I put in nearly all my power.

“I want two people portion, with extra”(Taichi)

“HURTTTT! I GET IT, I GET IT ALREADY, PLEASE FORGIVE ME!”(Pinea)

And then, Marl is walking this way.

Her walking is weird somehow.....Let’s not mention that.

“I’ll say it again, Good morning.”(Marl)

“Ah, Good morning. Let’s eat quickly and go the guild.”(Taichi)

“Mou, Taichi-san. You should have spoken more sweetly!”(Marl)

“I’m embarrassed here, don’t talk about it”(Taichi)

We finished out meal while having that kind of nonsensical exchange.

Breakfast is roasted bread with frying egg and soup, and we are the only one who got fruit as extra.

Don’t know if it’s apologizing or a congratulation, but it’s the same.

Then I go to pay for food, including last night portion. And we go to the Adventurer Guild.

Damn, our budget is getting low.

And also, I feel the loss more, because I can’t remember last night deed muChapter

“Hei! Yah!”(Taichi)

I pierce through it small body with full force. Then took a swing at the nearby head.

The second one is being sent flying by quarterstaff and viscous liquid is leaked out from its bodies.

And quarterstaff is leaking gachi sound, it's not good.

Even if it's thick, it still wood isn't it this staff.

I use it as a melee weapon too much, now I can see a crack.

"Marl, are you okay?"(Taichi)

"I, I, I'm fine,.....but....."(Marl)

"But?"(Taichi)

"It got leaked out.....There are 2 more on your back!"(Marl)

"Ah, so!!"(Taichi)

When I looked at Marl body and confirm it, I piece quarterstaff and spinning kicked two incoming goblins.

"Wanna find some request with a good reward that you guys can do right?"(Ulz)

Old man Ulz listens to our request and is now looking through files.

"How about searching for a lost cat"(Ulz)

"I'm good at that!"(Marl)

"That's for just Marl alone, and what's for me?"(Taichi)

"It's just....You're also newbie you know?"(Ulz)

Even if everyone has confirmed my strength, but I still have no achievement nor fighting experience.

But, I still prefer a subjugation or emergency quest.

"Oh, what about this."(Ulz)

Then old man Ulz is picking up one request.

Is adventurer guild the client?

"Subjugated goblins, no it's scouting. Those things are breeding fast and often attacked livestock or stole farm produces. You need to reduce it number time to time. And at that time there is scouting request, but if you kill it you'll get some money too."(Ulz)

“How can you check that we have killed them?”(Taichi)

“It will be recorded on your card, but you need to kill it for good so it will get recorded.”(Ulz)

Hoh, there’s such convenient function on this card too.
If there are none function like this, there will be a lot of fabricated reports, right?
Or you have to bring every monster bodies here or have someone go and check, or bring some part of its bodies..... whichever is sound troublesome.
But if it’s for me, I’ll just toss everything into inventory.

“Taichi-san.....”(Marl)

Poke, poke

“Then let’s go with this, do you have a map?”(Taichi)

“Taiiiiiichi iiiiii-sannnnnnn”(Marl)

Poke, poke

“Ah, there is. But listen, just scouting is fine, don’t be greedy. Just fight less and fast, you got that?”(Ulz)

I take a look at the map that old man Ulz gave me.
It seems like forest nearby town is suspicious.
You need to leave the west gate, and follow the main road for 1-hour, huh?

“TAICHI-SAN!”(Marl)

Poke, poke

“What!”(Taichi)

“I have a bad hunch, it looks dangerous, let’s not go.”(Marl)
“It’s should be dangerous of course, let’s say if we always avoid everything that looks dangerous, why to bother becoming an adventurer.” (Taichi)
“Au, you’re right but.....”(Marl)

Still, Marl is not convinced.
If it’s like this, you have that sentence.

“Don’t worry, if it looks too dangerous, let’s run. And if anything happen I’ll protect you.”(Taichi)

“! E, Ehehe, it’s that so?”(Marl)

Marl spoke while fidgeting with embarrassment.
I don’t want to show off but something like this is a piece of cake

I use quarterstaff piecing goblin that jumped at me.
And then goblin at my side saw that chance, took a jump.
It grabbed my upper right arm and then bites, but because of leather armor I wore, it doesn’t reach my body.
I use two fingers to pieces its eyes, it’s rolling on the ground so I kept stomping till it dies.

“Kyaa! Taichi-san there are five more on the right!”(Marl)
“GUH! It’s so annoying!”(Taichi)

There are five more goblins coming out from the forest.
When I see them, I shot out Magic arrow from Non-Elemental magic Lv.1.
Magic arrow targeting is like a lock-on in a shooting game.
If Air bullet and Wind blade need to aim and shoot like a gun.
Magic arrow is a homing missile.

I gather a magic power that is suitable for the targets, an increasing number of an arrow to 5.

At the tip of the quarterstaff, there are 5 balls of light swirling around.

“Energy bolt!”(Taichi)

I plunge the quarterstaff into the soil, it makes a loud metallic sound.
5 Light arrows launches and pieces through goblins.
As I can see, there is a hole sized around 500yen coin, all headshots.
All 5 goblins, dead.
Energy bolt, even though it’s Lv.1 magic, it’s power is strong.
It’s used 25MP for increasing arrow number to 5. Comparing to Air bullet, it’s consuming more MP.

[GIGI!?!]
[GUGE! GEGE!]

Remaining goblins must be afraid of my magic just now, it’s now all frantic.
Chance, I’ll shot you all down.

“Aww, Finished at last.”(Taichi)

I used my short sword to finished remaining goblins.
I got hurt a little, but just using healing magic and it's all gone.
When wound closing in a blink of eyes is shocking in itself.

“Au..... I can't be bride anymore. Ah, Taichi-san will take me anyway, I don't have to worry about that.”(Marl)

“Move your hand more than your mouth if you please.”(Taichi)

When she heard me, Marl bent her mouth and continuing to kill remained unmovable goblins.
And I've her change her undies.
Truth is, I'm also leaked a little too.
As I thought, even if it's a monster, but it has a humanoid form. I've taken a lot of mental damages.

“29 in totals huh? By the way, can we sell these corpse.”(Taichi)
“Its intestine seems to be ingredient for medicine, looks like it can be sold for small sums, also it can be used as food for monster livestock, remaining can be burned and using its ashes for magical ceremony”(Marl)
“Then, let's take it all back.”(Taichi)

Then I toss its corpse into inventory one by one.
Incidentally, Marl's knowledge is useful, and it's helped me a lot.
Even if she is useless in a fight, but her resourcefulness is great.

“Treasure box is so convenient.....I want one too”(Marl)
“Mine is special kind though, I can't tell you it's method too because I just suddenly gained it.”(Taichi)

I can't tell her that I got it as a gift set from the unknown entity(God) for free.

“Taichi-san is amazing as I thought If a normal couple of Rank E and F is faced this many goblins they wouldn't make it through for sure.”(Marl)

While collecting a goblin corpses.
Marl is praising me with the sparkling eyes.
I didn't use even half of my MP and got only scratches that can be healed instantly.

I can take more than half of that.

Lv. is also upped from 3 to 5.

And profit from this time is from subjugated, sell, and also request's reward.

"I'm also afraid. Game and reality are so different as I thought."(Taichi)

Feeling of clashed skins, liquids that got out, gooey feeling that passed through the blade to my hand.

Everythings is so real that made my body trembles.

Feeling of taking life, that I never know, when in former world.

"Game? Reality?"(Marl)

".....Don't mind it. Did you finished mapping?"(Taichi)

Though it ended without the feeling of regrets, maybe it because reality still didn't pass deep enough through my skin, or maybe I played too much game? Because the western game that let you running through post-nuclear war world has been released a lot, a futuristic war ones too. It has too realistic graphics.

"Escape way is also perfect!"(Marl)

"Good, then let's go back with caution."(Taichi)

Today is finished without a scratch
Chapter
Let's go back

"And you still come back without losing some limbs, and not even a single wound."(Ulz)

When old man Ulz is receiving our adventurer cards for checking, he is mumbling something like that while sweating.

The score is Me 23, Marl 6.

And Marl score is just from finishing touches.

"I brought back all of goblins corpses please buy it."(Taichi)

"What? ALL?"(Ulz)

"All"(Taichi)

When I told him that, old man Ulz is calling more people and then together with me and Marl we get into some sort of warehouse.

Cold. Is this freezer warehouse?

Seems like the cold come from the crystal that is hanging down from the ceiling, fantasy is so convenient.

“I’ll take it out”(Taichi)

And then I took out and lined up all 29 goblins corpse.

Un, when you look at its line up, It gross.

“This one only has a hole in the head, magic?”

“This one has a blunt wound.”

“Overall looks good”

Old man and staffs are checking out goblins corpses.

I don’t know how they appraise it, but it looks like I’ll get a good price.

“By the way, how much for took down one?”(Taichi)

“Huh? 5 big coppers for one. Didn’t I told you?”(Ulz)

What.....? Then it’s mean I got 145 big copper coins.....

14 silver coins and 5 big copper coins!?

I can stay at the inn for 58 days!

Upgraded my equipment is not a mere dream now.

“Marl, how much for goblins corpse in the market?”(Taichi)

“It’s up and down form demands and supplied, but it should be around 2-3 big coppers. But there aren’t big subjugation for goblin recently, price might be up to 3 big copers”(Marl)

“Then we’ll get another 87 big coppers, it’s 8 silvers and 7 big coppers. The Income is around 2 gold coins.”(Taichi)

“A, un....”(Taichi)

The set meal is around 2-4 copper coins, drink is mostly 1 copper coin.

Lodging including breakfast is 25 copper coins per night.

From what mentioned above, 1 copper can be around 100 yen.

Big copper is 1,000 yen, silver is 10,000 yen, gold is 100,000 yen.

I went out in the morning, now is afternoon.

Just half a day, I made 200,000 yen

Profit, the profits is too great, adventurer job.

No, if you count in life-risking is might be normal.

And we have to add in others cost likes equipment maintaining too.

Then old man Ulz brought us back to the counter.

“Subjugation’s reward, request’s reward, and selling of those corpses, the total is 25 silvers and 2 big coppers. Check it first.”(Ulz)

He shows me a paper that has some written on.

In that’s details that they bought one goblin corpse for 3 big copper coins.

And request’s reward is 2 silver coins.

Isn’t a reward too few? No, from the start this is scouting request.

“How would you split it?”(Ulz)

“Ahh, money splitting huh? What to say, I don’t know about this kind of thing.”(Taichi)

If it is a game then it’s equally split.

but it can’t be used of course.

“Normally, their split the reward from the work they had done though.....”(Ulz)

“I only kill goblins that Taichi-san has stopped its movement! I didn’t even join up in a fight!”(Marl)

Why is she speaking in a post that feels like it has WINK sound in the background too?

Even though it’s all true.

“And Jou-chan is also speaking this herself.....”(Ulz)

Old man Ulz is scratching his head on what to do.

So, I give Marl 5 silvers from 25 we got.

And now those two are making a questionable face.

“Marl is making map alone, right? And you’re spotting goblins first and told me their positions. even when I fight you told me when and where they would come at me. And of course, because when a fight broke out it all up to me so I gave you 5 silvers.”(Taichi)

And I took out another 10 silver coins and gave it to Marl.

“And, this is our center budget for me and Marl party. I’ll leave it for Marl to look after it. After this, if there are some necessities to be bought or living expense for me and Marl, you can use it to pay for all of it as you see fits for a situation. How about it?”(Taichi)

If she can’t be used in a fight, then let her handle all of these troublesome works.

We’re weird individuals anyway.

But Marl makes a really happy face.

It’s like there’s PAN sound, are you an M.

“And the rest is mine.”(Taichi)

For the reasons above, my income is 10 silver coins and 2 big copper coins. By the way, my quarterstaff is cracking. Let’s find better ones. Wood is out, I want something that can be used in a very long fight.

“I’m going to get something to replace this, What about Marl?”(Taichi)
“Ah, me too, I want to look for a weapon that can support Taichi-san!”(Marl)

Marl clenches her fist and let out FUU sound.
She has a short sword at her waist too, but she can use it with the immovable opponent only.
Let’s teach her how to use it sometime.

“Let’s go, see you old man.”(Taichi)
“See you tomorrow.”(Ulz)

And we leave the guild for the weapon shop.

“Ehehe.”(Marl)

Marl is smiling and happily walking beside me.
I’m not accustomed to having someone this beauty walking alongside me.
Because before this, I’m plump right?
Even though I’ve been dating some woman too but.....
Well, it’s not a good parting.

After that, I'm not much interested in love, AHH so black.

Ah, when I'm thinking about old wounds we arrive at the weapon shop.
Yosh, are there any good match weapon.

Chapter 6: I thought it was a joke, but it's a truth

"Welcome-ne."

It's owner cat today who watch over the shop.

By the way, is it because it's just the time or because of Luise isn't present here that the customers are all gone.

"Have you been here before?"(Taichi)

"Just for once or twice, because fighting isn't my forte"(Marl)

Isn't your forte? Shouldn't you say you don't have a single clue should be more correct?

Anyway, I still lacked knowledge about the conductor, I should just ask the owner.

"Sorry, but I bought quarterstaff here yesterday, but I just use it little too harshly then it looks brittle like this. You have something that is more durable than this?"(Taichi)

And I too out quarterstaff out for him to inspect, and the cat receive it to have a look.

I don't have a problem with living expense now, so I can spend it on working types of equipment.

Also, when you look at the giant cat inspecting a weapon, is a wondrous sight.

"Un, Onii-san are using it so harshly-ne. Even if it can be used in melee combat, it's just for magician use it to defend themselves, and they're not any of them that kept swinging and hitting it around-ne."(Owner Cat)

"Taichi-san is truly just swinging and hitting around. He hit hard enough that jumped goblin are sent flying away."(Marl)

After that Owner Cat is mumbling about something, then quarterstaff is getting covered by pale light.

He nodded and look here.

He is cute if you look at him.

His plain eyes look sharp.

“It functions as a conductor is still working, this shop has no policy of buying back the goods. But if you’re going to exchange it for a new one, I’ll give you a discount 2 silvers.”(Owner Cat)

When I ask him what you will be using exchanged ones for, He said it can be used to create a new conductor Wand.

“If you’re using conductor staff, a new one should be the same right? How much is your budget?”(Owner Cat)

“Not over 1 gold”(Taichi)

“Then it’s here and here-ne”(Owner Cat)

What’s the owner have recommended, is a wooden staff which is reinforced by metal on both ends, and a thin metal sheet is added to cover its whole pole.

You can say it just like a metal reinforced quarterstaff.

Its length is around my heights.

Another one is a spear.

It’s little taller than me if you combine the lengths of handle and blade together.

Should be around 1.9m.

If you’re comparing it to another spear in this shop, it can be called short spear.

At the handle, there is also thin metal sheet cover it just like a staff before.

The blade is two-edged and it’s also considerable thick, it’s durability should be high.

If it’s this spear, it can pierce through the thick-skinned monster.

Even it has more attack power, you still should have learned to handle it first to use its full capability.

“It’s both have merits and demerits-ne. If you want to focuses on dealing melee damage, you should pick a spear.

But if you want to use magic mainly quarterstaff is better.”(Owner Cat)

“Because it functions as a conductor is better?”(Taichi)

“Quarterstaff have more magic capacity and can preserve magic better when using a magic strike. But spear’s blade is normal metal, it will disperse a magic power.”(Owner Cat)

“Magic strike?”(Taichi)

When I ask about something I haven’t heard before, the owner is making a surprised face.

“Aiya, Onii-san even though you’re the Magic warrior but you don’t know about a magic strike? Now, I understand why your weapon is in that state.”(Owner Cat)

Then, the owner picked up tattered wooden quarterstaff and hit my shoulder lightly.

It force make my shoulder dropped a little.

I don’t need to harden my muscles to receive it, It doesn’t even make me budge.

“That’s normal hitting, next is a magic strike”(Owner Cat)

The owner prepares to hit my shoulder just like before.

But before the contract, the entire quarterstaff is letting out a light for an instant, and then....

“AGRH!!?”(Taichi)

“Taichi-san!?”(Marl)

I feel like my shoulder was hit full power by a metal rod.

Through shoulder to the body, I nearly fell on my back, but I still hold up and stands.

Marl is also supported my back.

Its power is incredible.

I can't even lift my shoulder up.

"That is a magic strike-ne, if you put a magic power into a weapon when it's touching the target it'll releasing magic power you put in on them. The staff has both magic capacity and preserving, it's an ideal weapon for a magic strike."(Owner Cat)

The owner explained and then put the quarterstaff on my hurt shoulder, and the pain is gone. Healing magic, is it?

"You should train to use it. Onii-san also has high magic power anyway-ne. Just for the record, that before are just touching, If it's normal hitting you will get sent out of the shop instantly-ne."(Owner Cat)

The owner explains again then smirking.

He knows about how to handle weapons well. As expected of weapon shop owner.

"I don't mind, but now that I got hurt how about giving me some discount."(Taichi)

"Nope-ne, that's just example of how to use magic strike, but you seem promising. So it's an investment for a future If you choose to pick something up, I'll make it 9 silvers."(Owner Cat)

"Um, wait, Marl, you want to buy something too right? what do you want?"(Taichi)

"Ah, yes, I want something that is easy to use, like a crossbow!!"(Marl)

So, crossbow huh?

Even though it doesn't very good at repeated shots. But it easier to handle.

"Understood, then owner! I want this too can you give me a discount or an extra service."(Taichi)

"Can't be helped. Then I'll add some extra bolts for Ojou-chan's crossbow."(Owner Cat)

He made a displeased face.

Well, we got some extra anyway.

And me.....Yeah, let take a staff. I want to use that magic strike.

Conclusion, I took reinforced staff..... When I use Appraisal eye on it, it says “Battle staff”.

And Marl bought a Light Crossbow.

We took it easy in our room after we come back to Burning golden bed and ate our dinner.

I lie down and look up at the ceiling on the double bed.....Well, I pretend to, the truth is I’m currently looking at the status menu.

Just looking though.

And Marl is currently write down our daily spendings today on this double bed too.

Why double bed? ‘Cause it’s cheaper than two rooms.

Staying together is cheaper, I don’t think about anything more than this, really.

Just put in together the advanced rent I paid and Marl’s, and it’s finished.

And I choose one of Magic eye skill called Appraisal eye.

If I look at the item, I’ll know its name, ability and how to use.

If it’s a living creature, I’ll know its name, Lv., And skill it has.

If it’s a person, then I’ll know jobs, achievements, crimes, and alias too.

Well, what will I see if I use it on her?

Name: Marl(Fake name), Mariel Blan Miscronia.

Lv: 2

Skills: Ethics 2, Deception 1, Danger perception 2, Music 1, Persuasion 3, Royalties exquisite(Real).

Aliases: Newbie adventurer, Girl who run away from home, 1st Princess of Miscronia Kingdom(Second in line to the throne).

Achievement and Crime: None.

Incredible.....A real life royalties.

I thought she is a just normal idiot. But she is the “True” idiot in lots of ways.

What to do, should I pretend that lots of things never happen?

No, if it’s like that, when I want to do it, how could I hold it back.

Calm down.

Calm down me.

Even the contents are so surprising, but I have to accept it.

Because of that I need to calm down.

The things I can do now is sparse.

Yeah, there is only way.

“Let’s pretend that I didn’t see it.”(Taichi)

“Heh? What’re you talking about?”(Marl)

“Nope”(Taichi)

And Appraisal eye only needs 1Mp to activate.

Now, I leveled it up by 3Lv, My MP is now 333.

Even it has been increased that much, I still can’t use it without thinking.

“Marl.”(Taichi)

“What is it?”(Marl)

Marl who is called by me, raised her face from an account book and smile.

Red-brown haired, Shaped face, Bright skin, and if you look carefully you’ll find dignified feels.

Her breasts aren’t big, but its shape fits perfectly. And even though her body is small but she has a good proportion.

Ahh....Why the hell are you so perfect, this girl?

“Nothing”(Taichi)

“.....? Ah! You just wanted to call me! Mou, Taichi-san don't be so lonely.”(Marl)

I don't know where she begins to mistaken it. But Marl smiled and put down an account book and crawling to me, so I have to push her out.

Che, don't come near me, I won't let you tempting me that easily.

“Hey, what the are you thinking about, Why are you running away from home and became an adventurer?”(Taichi)

“Mumumu, I told you already yesterday. I don't like, no, I hate the opposite side that I need to have the political marriage with, so I run. What about Taichi-san, what do you want to do? I'm only one telling you this alone is not fair!?”(Marl)

Marl push away and hug my arm then rubbing her cheek on my shoulder.

Are you a dog, what is this adorable being?

But, it's all true. Even I let it passes through at that time.

I still can't believe that she is a real princess, well just think about common sense for a second.

Now, what to do again, I did it with a princess.

If it looks bad, let's take Marl away with me.

“Well.....I still don't have a concrete goal in mind. But for now, collecting experiences, training, upgrade my equipment. And raise my adventurer rank, maybe? The reason that I become an adventurer because it suits me.”(Taichi)

“If you're a man, shouldn't you aim to build a harem or become lord of some castle?”(Marl)

“It doesn't like I don't have an interest though, but wouldn't building a harem directly affect you?”(Taichi)

“If I'm the legal wife, then it's no problem! I should say that is the capability test of the real man!!”(Marl)

As I listen to Mald, It seems like male adventurer has a lot of wives isn't something unusual.

There is a lot of reasons, such as you have to face the life and death situation, so a stress have build up.

Or he has too much of vitality just one person is not enough.

He is so fit.

The simple reason is to leave an heir.

Or some believe that talent will pass to the offsprings of a capable adventurer.

“Well how about we try, if I alone am enough?”(Marl)

Marl whispered near my ear and bites it.

Bruuhhhhh, I’m nearly letting out weird voice.

If you dare challenge me then bring it on.

I still have full conscious today.

Don't underestimate me, If you think you can tempt me then try!

I'm sorry, I can't resist.

Marl is the cutest!

After that, we spent every day to train.

I have 23 points (TLN: I think the author is confused here he should have 24 but well.) I have spent 3 for Appraisal eye.

I raise Earth, Fire, Wind, Water, Healing, Non-elemental to Lv. 2 using 15 points.

Raise Polearms skill to Lv. 3 using 3 points.

And Daily life magic for another 1 point so I have used 22 and have only 1 point left.

For elemental magic Lv.1 is single target magic, elemental magic Lv.2 will be started to show the distinctive point of each element.

Wind magic Lv.1 Air bullet, Lv.2 Wind blade and Air walls.

Air bullet is fast and hard to see, so it's also hard to dodge.

Wind blade is to using nearly invisible gale to cut off an enemy.

Air wall can be used to fend off an arrow or blow away a nearby foe.

Earth magic Lv.1 Earth bullet, Lv.2 Pitfall trap, and Earth wall.

Earth bullet is slow but with its mass, it can be used to slow down foes.

Pitfall trap can be used under enemy foothold and can also build a huge trap hole.

Earth wall is to create a strong wall as its name, even I use the sword to slash at it, there are not even scratches

Water magic Lv.1 Water bullet, Lv.2 Ice bullet, and Water Veil.

Power of water bullet is between wind and earth, it can be used to stun some foe. But because it's easier to control, it suited for handicap.

Ice bullet will piece through a target and freeze them, its killing power is high.

Water Veil have no physical defense, but it very good against fire.

Fire magic Lv.1 Firebolt, Lv.2 Fireball, and Flame.

Firebolt is as fast as Air Bullet.

Fireball when coming into contact with something it will disperse and damaging surrounding, its an area magic.

Flame is to release a torrent of flame from your hand, like a flamethrower.

When I try it, I've leaked out something like "Begone Trash!!" too.

But when using Fire magic, it burned your target too, Ugh.

And then Healing and Non-elemental.

Healing Lv.1 Heal, Lv.2 Detoxing.

Detoxing can also use to cure drunkenness too.

Non-elemental Lv.1 Magic arrow, Lv.2 Magic bullet, and barrier.

Magic arrow is to shoot out an arrow made of magic, its power is very high compared to the same Lv.1 magic.

Magic bullet has a spinning force when its shot out to improve its power, and if its hit, it'll explode too.

A barrier is to create the magic veil.

But its very great because it can be used against both physical and magical. But it consumes high amount of magic power and you can't move too.

As I test, I think that Non-elemental magic is powerful than Elemental magic.

And about Daily life magic.

It can be used to light up a fire, refrigerated food or drink.

Cleaning body, clothes, tools, lighten up a room.

Stopped bleeding, Its really useful.

And now I'm trying magic strike.

It's considerably hard.

If you talk about putting in a magic and then hit, it's easy.

But something like the cat owner did, where you just poking at the target and you can send him flying, I don't know how to do that.

Try putting in a lot of magic power, I feel close, but something feels really off.

Also, there is no skill like "magic strike", in the skill list.

"Hmm"(Taichi)

It's still not as good as the cat owner, but it still took form.

I can try and find someone to train it on the training ground.

But if I can't control it, and make someone exploded, I'm done for.

I can say this because I try to hit a wooden target once and it goes boom.

"Taichi-san, Taichi-san"(Marl)

While thinking, Marl is closing up at the back without me realizing.

When I turn around to face her, she started speaking happily for some reason.

She is just like a little puppy.

"Ulz-san has told me that there is goblins annihilation quest out. And this time we have a Knight order and other party joined too. Let's go!"(Marl)

"Goblins is it. Well."(Taichi)

We walked to the guild's counter, and give Marl some bolts from my inventory.

After several days of training, Marl can use her light crossbow against an unmoved target without a problem. And she also got herself Shooting skill.

I also go Shooting skill after I shooting crossbow sometimes.

Looks like you can also gain a skill by normal training without using skill points.

If I want to keep up some points, then I should train more.

There are a lot of peoples at the guild's counter.

Almost every one of them has a newbie equipment just like us.

There is no one with expensive getups after I look around.

All of them are a warrior, there is not a single mage?

"Ah, Mage is here."

"Oh, then survival rate is up."

Why Are they very welcoming?

Am I only mage here?

"Oh, Taichi. You're going too right?"(Ethan)

Ethan who is getting beaten up till he fainted by me on the first day, called out to me.

After that time, we also trained together from time to time.

Even though until now I never lose to him even once, but he is getting goods too, and his sword skill is now Lv.2. there is a time when I nearly lose too.

"Ah, are these all the peoples who joined?"(Taichi)

"Might be so, there is also Knight order with us, It's an easy job."(Ethan)

There is 18 of us here.

Almost everyone is warriors, Archers including Marl is 3, I'm the only mage here.

"Alright, you all here! Pay rate is the same 5 big coppers per 1 goblins! And also 2 silvers for participation reward, but if you do nothing I'll not pay you!"(Ulz)

When old man Ulz finished, everyone is getting excited.

The rest is a rough detail.

The goblins village that we got to subjugate this time is in the forest, half days from town. We'll move tonight and attack the village early in the morning.

And after cleaning up, we should be back at the town by evening.

“We’ll meet up at midnight bells, at worst you have to sleep in the wood for 2 days. You have to prepare a ration for yourself, and I’ll tell you we have dried food for sale at the counter!”(Ulz)

When he finished, old man Ulz is grinning, and some of us send out BUUU sound.

Then we go buy some necessary things at the counter just like old man Ulz say.

“For certain, give me 3 days worth of foods for 2 peoples. also a blanket, I want 2.”(Taichi)

“What about some lantern? Taichi-san.”(Marl)

“Yeah....That too, and also water bag.....no give me barrels of water, I want 3, Fill it fully.”(Taichi)

“Oh, you’ll put it in your treasure box?”(Ulz)

When I nodded old man Ulz called out some staff and tell him something.

Look like that side need to prepare too.

When I tried to eavesdropping, They talk about something like carrying it by carriages. because they’re walking.

Of course, they’re heavy, but it doesn’t concern me.

“How much can be stored in your treasure box? Last time you also took lots of goblins back right?”(Ethan)

“Don’t know, never reaches its limit once.”(Taichi)

Same Items can be put together too.

No weight counts, No maximum counts.

I never things it will be infinity but it’s enough for sure.

When we got barrels of water, we went to the weapon shop and bought a bolt for Marl’s light crossbow, I bought another 3 dozens of it, this finished our preparation.

Now, how much we’ll get this time.

-The lack of mage for an adventurers.-

Only 20% of the populations that can be a mage.

And in reality, only 10% can become the full-fledged mage.

And If they can use an attack or healing magic, they will choose to enlist in the army or town's hospital.

Which is safer than being an adventurer, and got a stable income.

That's why in this world, there are not many mages who want undergo trouble and become an adventurer.

For the records, there is only 1 mage in every 40-50 adventurers.

Chapter 7: Hitting the bushes for goblins but I found something else

In the evening, little time before the midnight bells. I and Marl are waiting at the west gate's rendezvous.

We've eaten, and our conditions are perfect.

There're some adventurers that came here early too.

Not too far away, a division of Knight Order is gathered, They're all wearing same uniform armor.

Lowest Lv. of the knight's member is 10, and they all have at least Sword skill Lv.2.

And the leader of this subjugation force is Lv.22, he also has Sword skill Lv.3, he sure is strong.

At the adventurer's side, it can't be compared to the former.

For examples, Ethan is just Lv.4, Marl is just Lv.2.

But I can't really criticize them, I'm just Lv.5 too.

In the knight order side, there is a mage too..... Though there is only 1, the same on this side.

Long golden hair, like a pampered girl.

Maybe it because she is the magic soldier, she is wearing a cape, not an armor like the rest.

Un, but you can already guess her capacities by looking at the mound on her cape, she has considerably big ones.

"She is so gorgeous isn't it——"(Marl)

"Yeah, a magic soldier. I should keep her as my role model."(Taichi)

A skill I just gained is just like a hot blade.

To witnessing real fight of real mage, it should be a good experience.

I can use it as a reference.

“R, Right!” (Marl)

Marl is agitated by my remark.

Fuh, my innocent poker face is worked.

In the dark of the night, we started moving to the targeted goblin village.

The scouting team which is excellent adventurers over Lv.10 is leading, following after them are the knight order and then us, the newbies are watching the rear.

I, the mage are in front of newbies———My positions are after the knight order.

The one who lightens up the way is me, who use light magic at the tip of staff, and armor wearing guys at the rear.

If we got attacked, In front there is the knight order, and there are others adventurer in the back, became a shield for me, because I’m a mage.

Magic soldier-chan is close too.

Marching has no problem.

There is some monster attack, but it got repelled by adventurers and knights at the front.

“Yeah.....”(Taichi)

When I took a glance at the side, I saw a corpse that was moved aside to not hinder a marching.

It’s all goblins.

Because it’s in pieces so it’s hard to tell.

But, the recent attack has only been goblins.

Isn’t this feel strange?

Last time we fought them, they came in groups.

Then why are they attacking us one by one like this now?

They're strong in numbers, if not attack in a group then it's meaningless.

"Goblins pack! Prepare to engage!"

After the shout from the front. I and Marl bring ready our weapons.

Is this their main force?

Those from before are scouts huh.

"Be sure, and don't hit our allies?"(Taichi)

"N. No problems!"(Marl)

Even though its name look weak, but the power of light crossbow is real.

I started to hear fighting sound from the front. ———huh? Did they slip through from front line?

Because I fighting's sound gradually become closer.

"Here they come"(Taichi)

Goblins emerge from the darkness.

The knight has surrounded Magic soldier-chan tight, and she's also readying her wand in a low stance.

That side seems to have no problem.

Those goblins already become target practice for magic.

First thing first, well, let's just use only 20% for a threat this level.

"Marl, don't come to the front."(Taichi)

"Y, Yes!"(Marl)

I leave the front row, and heading out for goblins, putting magic into battle staff at 20% then I swing out.

Boom. the sound it made look like a bomb more than staff.

Many things that have been goblins scattering aside.

Instant dead.

To goblins, this is just too overkill.

If intestines are all gone, the price will go down too.

Then I'll halve its power to 10%, that should be enough.

"Ora ora! Here I go!"(Taichi)

I kept going forward, hitting, smashing, trashing goblins that got in front of me.

Before, there are some of them that survive the first hit, But not now.

Marl might be afraid of hitting me, so she is anxiously looking this way.

Un, Good decision.

If it's an all-out brawl like this, the risk of hitting your own allies are high.

But, still.....

"It's still strange."(Taichi)

The movement of goblins is very strange.

Looking closely, this can't be called an attack, it looks like they're trying to break through and go pass us.

They're not stopping for an engagement, there are only confusion attack and running pass.

Marl, Magic soldier-chan and the knights who protect her. They're even tried to attack them once.

I try to hit them, then waiting for a counter-attack.

And there is none just as I thought.

So I try calling out the knight who is in the back row of the main force.

"Isn't the movement of these goblins seem strange?"(Taichi) "Yes.....Look like they're running away from something."(Magic soldier-chan)

The answer came from Magic soldier-chan

Her voice is cute just like Marl's, but a little cooler.

“T, Taichi-san, I feel, dangerous, this looks really bad.”(Marl)

“Huh?”(Taichi)

I felt someone tugging my sleeve, I look back and found Marl whose face is very pale and trembling.

Marl has Danger perception skill.

Is Danger perception skill caught up on something?

And then I heard loud screaming for help from the front.

Thud, there is something fall in the front of us.

“Hihh!?”(Marl)

Marl saw it and leaking out a small scream.

That is a corpse of a person whose limbs and body are bent in the wrong direction.

Looking closely at the equipment, it seems to be an adventurer.

“T, T, TAICHI-SAN!!”(Marl)

“Calm down, calm down and take a deep breath. Marl listen, I need to depend on your knowledge right now. What can make goblins run away and have the power to kill a human in a single hit like this.”(Taichi)

The front seems to have to engage that thing right now, I can still hear a screaming many time.

I can't be hesitated.

“I, If there's something that eats goblin as food, and have over human power that is.....”(Marl)

A Troll.

Marl paled while replying.

“Don't engage it in the front, circle around and attack it from the back! Even though it has a lot of power, it doesn't fast, pay attention to its movement! Don't ever try to receive its attack!”

When I came to the frontline, I see the knights surrounding and attacking Troll in a group.

Half of the adventurers in the frontline either injured or got killed by the Troll are pulling back.

“Uwa, what the hell is that”(Taichi)

I have heard that Troll looks like a giant human, but this is a lot more than I’ve thought.

It’s height maybe surpassing 3 metres.

The eye is glowing red, Teeth are bent fangs and saliva is leaking.

Body is covered in muscles, and have long arms.

White-gray colored skin doesn’t have any weapon with it, it doesn’t even wear any pants.

Something that is hurting my eyes is dangling around.

By the way, that thing looks like it can getting ready for battle at any time.

“Adventurer!? This way is dangerous just leave it to us!”

One knight is looking this way and warns me to get back, but I ignore him and raise battle staff up.

I use magic instantly.

Kukuku, I learned your weakness from Marl-sensei.

“Turn into a crisp!”(Taichi)

The magic power that has been gathered got turned into bolts.

Firebolts are shooting continuously from the front of battle staff.

Troll body got piecing and burning by the bolts.

Flame form the Firebolts covered over Troll body.

As I heard from Marl, Troll has high regeneration ability.

If it was a normal wound from normal attack it’ll get healed instantly.

But getting burned is a different story.

Troll regeneration got obstructed by flame.

And while still covered in flames, its now swing its hand around in agony.

“A Fire magic user huh! Great, its regeneration is gone! Kill it!”

A knight that looks like a leader is giving out an order and unsheathed his sword.

Knights around are charging at the rampaging Troll simultaneously.

Even though, Troll is swinging around its prided powerful arms furiously at the incoming threats.

But the knights have easily blocked it without using a shield.

“Get penetrate!”(Taichi)

I’m also using Energy bolts to shoot at its consecutively, by aiming at Troll’s head and upper torso.

Energy bolts are all hitting the target. The homing attack won’t miss anyway.

Chest, shoulder, throat, and face of Troll got pierced through just like I said.

When the balance of the Troll’s face is sent off by me.

Knight’s leader has used others knight shields as a foothold and jumped at the Troll.

“Hahh!”(Knight’s leader)

He gave a short yell, and slash at its thick throat.

Sun , it gave out that sound, and Trolls is falling on its back.

Ohh, As expected of a knight.

The knight’s side seems to get injured too, but nobody got hurt enough that they can’t move.

And at that time when they use shields as a foothold is cool.

That is a move if you have not trained to use it against giant monster before, it can’t be done.

“Bring the injured ones here! I can use Healing magic!”(Taichi)

Good thing that I still have enough magic left.

“Nah, it’s good. Compared to us, we’re least injuring than your side, just go take a look at the retreated adventurers.”(Knight’s leader)

Knight’s leader whose holding a bloodstained sword is walking this way.

He then hit lightly my shoulder and smile.

He is older, but a handsome with golden hair and blue eye.

His age maybe around 30.

“Nice support, Because of that person who got injured has decreased. Thank you.”(Knight’s leader)

“No, your side is more…….”(Taichi)

I haven’t even finished my sentence then I see.

“Oi, Oi…….”(Taichi)

There are 3 more Trolls coming out of the forest.

I jumped back hurriedly, and ready my battle staff.

While charging my magic power, ready……Now.

“Fireball!”(Taichi)

Ball of fire is appearing above my head and got sent at the chests of 3 Trolls.

After it hit, it exploding around the same time.

Troll’s agony groan can be heard.

“Took it down one by one! Injured peoples switch your position with the one in the back!”(Knight’s leader)

When the Knight’s leader is taking a lead, others knights follow after him.

I follow them too, there is no time for complaint.

I’m putting magic power inside battle staff.

The first hit should be fully charged, after that, I should adjust it on the second hit.

“Hey! Why is a mage is charging too!?”

One knight yelled out to me, but I ignore him and closing my range at the most left Troll.

It big but look like human, weak point shouldn't be different.

“ORAAAAAAAAAAAAA!”(Taichi)

I jump out in full force and strike down at the flame-covered Troll's head.

When it hit, I released all of the magic power that stored in battle staff without reserved.

BOOM!. There is exploding like noise come from the Troll' head ———— is gone, with some part of its chest too.

Hahaha! Behold my mighty magic!

While thinking about that, come 2 more Trolls.

How many are these things?

I targeted the new coming Trolls and going for it while charging magic power to the battle staff.

And facing 2 of them at the same time is dangerous, so I running slightly side way from it's front.

Troll saw that and swing its fist at me.

“Ohhh!”(Taichi)

I swing battle staff at incoming fist.

It fist exploded and blood is gushing out.

“Yahhh!”(Taichi)

I rotated my battle staff that has hit the fist while charging magic power in it again and thrashing it at Troll's leg like that.

Pan!, Troll's leg bent in the opposite direction let out that sound.

The ground is shaking as its tipped over.

“Die!”(Taichi)

I plunge down battle staff at its head.

It twitching a little and stopped moving.

Then I look at other Troll that coming for me.

“Oh, shit!?”(Taichi)

The battle staff that was plunged down at Troll’s head is stuck to the ground.

It can’t be helped, so I rolled away to avoid Troll’s fist which swung at me.

And it fist hit my battle staff that is stuck at the other Troll head.

Hey, hey, my battle staff will bend.

I took out a short sword and put in magic power.

“Um, this sword is no good.”(Taichi)

Magic just went through and it cracked.

If it can use to piece for one time is enough.

Then Troll swings it thick arm at me, but I barely dodged it.

“OHH! Y, Yosh! It’s too close!”(Taichi)

It got angry because I killed its friend? It now attacking me very furiously.

If it hit me just only once I would die? Don’t wanna try it.

So I dodge the incoming fist by jumping back or rolling out.

If it keeping on like this my stamina will run out.

Now, what should I do? while thinking like that one bolt flying from my back and landed on the Troll face.

The arrow bolt piecing it eye directly, the Troll holding it face while crying out loud.

“Ta, T, Taichi-san! Run!!”(Marl)

“Idiot! You’re the one that should run!”(Taichi)

Marl is the one who shot that bolt.

Her face is pale, and her legs are trembling.

Why the hell did she come to the front!

Troll is looking at Marl with wrathful eye and roar.

It's running straight for Marl and ignored me.

“Do you think I'd let you!!!!”(Taichi)

While its running, I jump kick at its rib.

That kick made Troll throw off aside.

And I follow that body.

My body feels lighter than usual, my foot that touched the ground is so light that I could feel it.

“Bastarddddddddddddddddddd!”(Taichi)

I running to the Troll that I just kicked and now lying on it back. I piece my short sword on its forehead.

Because I put in too much magic power, short sword broking to pieces.

“DIEDIEDIEDIEDIEDIEDIEDIEDIEDIEDIEDIE!!!!!!!!!!”(Taichi)

No choices, so I put magic power into my fists and punch its face.

By sitting on its throat, I straddle over Troll.

Troll trying to resist me, but it got pinned down and being punched by torrents of magic-infused fists.

I kept punching.

When I came to my sense, Troll face became minced meat.

“Huff, huff, your dick head.”(Taichi)

There are blood and meat splattered all over my body.

Ew, Stink, I feel sick.

“TA, TAIIIIIICHIIIIIII-SANNNNNNNNNNNNNNNN”(Marl)

Marl running straight here and tackle me down to the ground with her hug.

Because I’m all dirty with blood, Marl is now also dirtied by it too.

She is so afraid that her face is full of tears and snots, it’s ruins her cute face.

“This is just all splatted over blood idiot! Even though I told you it’s dangerous you still come out to the front!”(Taichi) I hugged Marl who is still sobbing and look around to be sure.

There is still a fights going.

Firstly, I should go get battle staff and corpses.

“Seriously, it’s finally over.”(Taichi)

When I finished healing injured persons, I let out a sigh.

Casualties at adventurer’s side, 3 deads, 7 injured, 5 badly injured.

At Knight’s side 6 lightly injured.

Just look at this, I know that knight’s side is much more capable.

To ensure this, the knight sent out scouts and confirmed that goblin’s village is destroyed.

Seems to be those Troll’s deed.

And goblin at first was running away from Trolls.

The attacked Trolls are 6 in total, half of it was done in by my hand.

And now we’re treating the wounded.

Good things that I bring 3 whole barrels of water, so we have a clean water for treatments.

The ones who gravely injured are cured by me and Magic soldier-chan to the point that they can walk by themselves.

So, they can walk on a return trip.

Now, I’ve currently collected all Troll’s corpses into my inventory.

6 Troll’s corpses..... Including subjugation rewards, how much money I’ll get, I just can’t stop expecting.

And the half of it was my doing. So, I’ll gain a lot of profits for sure.

I thought back when I killed the last Troll.

There are Marl and some others knights that witnessed me killing Troll with a bare hand, Magic strike with a bare hand and no weapon.

So I try punching a tree with the same method, the tree which has the same thickness as my body broke down.

And when I confirm it in my status, there is Spell fist skill Lv.2, Yes!!

“Taichi-san, good work.”(Marl)

Marl offer me a wet towel.

I took it and wipe my face and arms with it, I feel refresh.

Well, I got Troll’s and wounded peoples blood all over my body.

So I use towel wipe battle staff too.

Even though I use it so harshly it doesn’t even have a single dent.

As expected of expensive thing.

“Thanks, you’re helping a lot”(Taichi)

A towel is now full of blood, so I just throw it into inventory for a time being.

I can use Daily life magic to clean it, but right now I just want to preserve MP just to be sure, I can wash it later.

Then Knight’s leader and his subordinates are coming this way

Magic soldier-chan also comes, It an eye candy.

“Good work everyone, Thank you for all thing you have done.”(Taichi)(TLN: He is speaking with the very polite tone here.)

When I gave out polite speech, Marl is making a weird face.

Knight’s leader-san is the same, so I cough one time.

“I’ll tell you this once, I can speak polite tone normally, but when I fought, I don’t have time to mind it.”(Taichi)

“Hahaha! No, don’t mind that. If an adventurer with great abilities as you mind that, it’s weirder.”(Knight’s leader) Knight’s leader-san laugh and give out his hand.

I took his hand and shake.

“I’m Walls, leader of Crossroad’s 1st knight division. I thank you for help in Troll’s subjugation so the casualties are low.”(Walls)

“Taichi Mitsuba”(Taichi)

“Adventurer, right? Look at your abilities so Rank B? But even if you say you're Rank A it's no surprise."(Walls)

"No, I'm an E. Just become an adventurer for 10 odd days, and this is just my 2nd quest."(Taichi)

[[EH]]

My answer makes the knights confused and begin to talk among themselves.

Ah, this looks interesting.

"Ano, you can release such strong magic and killing Troll bare-handed and you said Rank. E? Are you joking?"(Magic soldier-chan)

Magic soldier-chan asked tensely.

But the world is harsh! Because it's true!

"It hard to believe.....Have you trained before became an adventurer?"(Walls)

"Ahh, I learned some martial arts and magic from my master in countryside, un"(Taichi)

A different world to be precise! And got some power from weird mysterious voice too! I can't tell them that.

When Walls heard my answer, he seems to remember something.

"Your achievement this time is big. Most of it is saving the knights too, I want to pay back. Can I have your contact?"(Walls)

"Ah, no problems."(Taichi)

I told Walls that I stayed at the Burning golden beds and he can contact me there.

And I still didn't finish healing the injured adventurers, so I want to go back and continue to help.

My magic that can be used in healing is steadily increasing by now too.

"Taichi-san.....Maybe you just got targeted by the knight order."(Marl)

"Hah? What does that mean?"(Taichi)

While walking back to adventurer's camp, I tilted my head at Marl remark.

I didn't do anything bad to be afraid of though.

"No, I just think that Taichi-san shouldn't just be nice to everyone."(Marl)

Marl is making a serious face I've never seen before.

"It shouldn't be a problem, right? Knight order should probably have money to pays. It doesn't too bad to have some power and connection. Also, I didn't have the plan to join knight order anyway."(Taichi)

"Ummmmm....."(Marl)

Marl is still making reluctant face to accept my answer.

Even though I just to come to this different world to live as I like, I don't wanna be someone underlings again.

I'm a Japanese who can say NO.

While we're talking about that we reached the adventurer's camp.

When the front line is badly wounded, the rear is just fighting with some goblins.

Even though there are some of them went to see the fight with Trolls in the front for the safe guard too.

"You have the courage to jump straight into the fight with Trolls. As expected of Taichi-san. Let me massage your shoulder."(Ethan)

"You're being creepy. So, no."(Taichi)

I chase away Ethan who came to tease and checking the wounded current conditions.

I used Healing magic on them so they've avoided death's door, but there's still trace of pain on their face.

I kneeled and look at a spear-user old man whose condition look worst.

His arm broke and the bone is piecing out of his skin.

Even I used healing magic on him several times, his wound is still hurting.

"Itatata, sorry, because of your help, I survive."

"Don't mind it, we're doing the same quest so we need to help each other out right?”(Taichi)

When I use Heal again to ease his pain, he clenches his hand several times.

Even wound is completely healed, strength is still not recovered completely.

Healing magic can't solve every problem huh?

“Thanks a lot, even I can't hold a spear for some time, but I can do something with this. In truth I want Ojou-chan from that side to take care of me, but my plan is all ruined now, so unfortunate.”

“Haha, It's unfortunate indeed.”(Taichi)

I laugh and lightly tapping his shoulder and go to next person.

Even though there's someone who died, but It's not me or Marl.

Even though it's sad, but we won.

We survive.

-Spell fist-

It's a martial arts that using magic to enhance user's body.

By using the magic strike to covered themselves or weapon to increase attack power.

One who can use this art must be excelled magic swordman or experienced warrior.

But, the methods of learning is different between former and latter.

Magic swordsman will gain Spell fist through finely magic control [Technique].

But, a warrior will gain it by [Experience] they gained without realizing.

While a rookie can just pulling through with mithril sword is a great success.

But if that is a highly experienced warrior he can cut Fullmetal door with ease.

Different is they can use this art or not.

Chapter 8: After a date, I accidentally propose her

After the sun has set. we who won the battle and coming back early time than in the schedule, are now receiving a welcoming cheer from the town's peoples.

It's also because we brought back the head of Trolls we have subjugated too.

I'm the one who brings it out from the inventory before entering the town because of everyone request.

Of course, it freaking heavy, I have to pull it along on the way back? no way.

There are also peoples who pray for the deads too.

When we march back to the knight's headquarter.

We are allowed to disperse and now going our own ways.

Well, we should head back and report to the guild first.

"Marl, are you still alright? I thought about going to report to the guild first, will you come?" (Taichi)

"I'm alright, let's go" (Marl)

So I bring Marl who is currently still excited by the welcoming earlier to the Adventurer guild together.

There are some adventurers that coming with us too, and there are some who are already leaving and going into the town.

Ethan is coming with us too.

"If you want to celebrate! You need money!" (Ethan)

It's true.

"Oh, you've come back. After you guys gone, there are a lot of goblins sighted around the town vicinity. I've worried what happened to your guys." (Ulz)

Oldman Ulz make a relieved face when he saw us.

But we need to tell him the bad news.

“3 Didn’t make it huh.....”(Ulz)

The bodies of 3 dead adventurers that the guild has received from the knight order, guild side said they would help buried them at the town’s cemetery, and sent back their belonging to their families.

Adventurer’s card seems to be used as a dog tag.

I saw one of the old-timers, brought 3 of its back to Oldman Ulz.

“Now, everybody brings your card here for inspection.”(Ulz) Everybody obediently do as he said, and started to give him their card.

Guild’s staffs checked it one by one and paid them the rewards.

“Ol, are you for real?”(Ulz)

When Oldman Ulz inspects my card, he let out surprising voice.

Sure thing, it has recorded the 3 killed Trolls too.

“Oldman, this guy is the real thing. When I’m at the front, I saw him burned 3 Trolls, and helped the Knights take one down with magic too.”

“Ah, I saw that too, it’s not a mistake. After that, he insta-killed one he burned with one hit, and he also the others 2 that come later.”

“He hit that thing bare fisted.”

“Are you kidding?”(Ulz)

“For real, he straddles on top of it, and was like ORAORAORA”

“You brought Troll’s corpses back too right, show him.”

Adventurers that saw my deed kept confirmed and praising me.

Hahaha, don’t need to praise me much, guys.

Then we walking to the warehouse.

Olman Ulz leaked that out when he looked at 3 Troll’s corpses that were lined up on the floor.

Monster’ corpse that was hunted by adventurer will be selling out as materials on the market.

Of course, the selling price outside will be expensive than buying price.

But part of the profits will come back to Adventurer guild too.

To keep it simple the more adventurer brings back corpses, the more guild will profits.

“How much is it?”(Taichi)

“Troll’s skin and bone are good for making weapons and armors. It’s fat can be used as a gold smelter. Its meat can be sold as high price too, unluckily its head is damaged, it’s still cost a lot. Without inspection it shouldn’t be under 30 golds for 1 corpse and subjugation reward is 5 golds per 1 Troll. Roughly it should be around 105 golds”(Ulz)

“It an unreasonable sum for a work.”(Taichi)

105 gold coins, It means I got 10 million and 6 hundred thousand yen.

The adventurer is not just something very profitable business.

“To all adventurers! CHEER!”

“”””CHEER!”””””

We raised our mug and have a toast.

After I got money from reward, I started a celebration party by invited all participated adventurers.

There are around 20 persons here, so I closed the shop exclusively for this party.

Even if it cost me 5 gold coins for hosting this all you can eat and drink party, but I’m rich anyway so no problems.

And it better than getting envied by the others.

There are some female adventurers who are sending a gaze too.

But, Marl-san guard is too heavy, and she isn’t leaving an opening.

Ah, goodbye bountiful breasts.

At that night's full throttle drinks and shouts, we went back to the inns and slept like a log.

Next morning.

When I woke up, and start teasing Marl, we got in the mood.

Yesterday, it was harsh form marching and fighting too, so we have it hot from the morning.

And for Marl? Different in our stamina is high so, well.

She is now sleeping soundly using my arm as her pillow.

But, well I'm also easy.

Even without knowing nothing about her, I accepted Marl.

But able to snuggle up with the girl that is to my liking every day. Made me think, a puppet is fine, Whatever will be, will be!

Um, I'm not wrong. Am I a male right?

I use Daily life magic to clean up the bed and our bodies. Let's continue to lie down.

When I opened status and checked. My Lv. becomes 12 and I have 42 skill points left.

While I'm looking through status, Marl woke up.

"Mou.....Taichi-san, doing it so harshly even though its morning."(Marl)

Then she leans closer and kisses.

Hey, don't do that, idiot! It'll get hard again.

I won't take any responsibility if that happens!

"Ufu, Taichi-san is falling for me completely right—"(Marl) "Noisy, should I teach you a lesson."(Taichi)

"Ahn.....W, wait, Taichi-sannn"(Marl)

When we're about to begins a 2nd round, the door slam open with a loud sound.

When I looked at the opened door, I saw Pinea whose veins on the head is popping out, standing there.

“I’m sorry for getting in the way customers-san. But now is time for cleaning, wouldn’t you get out already.....?”(Pinea) I’m sorry.

“Ufufu, all these past days, if I’m not protected. I should’ve been pregnant already.”(Marl)

Marl is lively speaking while smiling happily.

I heard that if female adventurers want, there is a guild service for Contraceptive magic.

So there won’t be any problem happen, there is also a story about a perverted monster that abducted women for breeding, so this measure is important.

But, perverted monster huh.....Just like my imagination.

For other reason, it is for the women that wanted to be an adventurer, but have to stop because of pregnant.

Example if the mixed gender party and someone in the party got pregnant, it’ll get disbanded.

So the Contraceptive magic is popular since long time ago.

But there is also intentive pregnant, or because she found a lover and want to get pregnant is also exist.

So the leftover ones in the party are still having it hard.

If they found a new member, then it’s a good thing but its still not that easy.

And this magic also easing the pain in a period. So it even got popular among the normal citizens recently.

This side is also thanks to it, for that, I don’t have to hold back on many things.

“Alright, what should we do today. We also got a money from Trolls too, how about going on a date together?”(Taichi) “Eh?”(Marl)

Marl is looking at me with an open mouth.

What the hell is that reaction?

Do you think I’m a person that only working and training?

“What, have a problem?”(Taichi)

“NoNoNo! Let’s go!”(Marl)

Then Marl hugged my arm with excitement.

Oh, her eyes are sparkling, so cute.

And we got 35 gold coins per Troll corpse.

Together with the goblin’s subjugation rewards, we now have more than plenty.

“And.....Why is the first place we come is a weapon shop?”(Marl)

Marl narrowed her eyes with displeasure.

“Well....thing is, my sword broke to pieces yesterday. Even Marl have a sword hung at your waist right? If a man like me don’t have any, it’ll look bad right?”(Taichi)

Putting on battle staff is jumbling.

When she looked at her waist, then at mine, she gives a nod.

“It sure is, I’m a woman and I have a sword with me too if Taichi-san has none and got looked down at is bad.”(Marl) Right? So. I walk to the counter.

Luise is here today too, but she is occupied by another customer.

When I arrived at the counter, Owner Cat is letting out a smoke from a pipe.

“Welcome, what do you want for today-ne?”(Owner Cat)

“Ou, I want a sword, the one that can withstand a magic power input, And I can hitting Troll head without it broken.”(Taichi) When he heard my order, he raises his eyebrow.

Ah, the face that tells “Don’t be ridiculous” face.

“Wait, for a rookie like Onii-san who doesn’t even know Magic strike is to soon, Just get back and train——“(Owner Cat) Before he finished speaking, I focused my magic power at my index fingertip and poked at his face.

Owner counters me with his magic focused pipe.

Bang

The impacted sound is loud, and Owner’s pipe is pushed back a little.

Owner’s eye is widely opened.

“.....I’m surprised-ne”(Owner Cat)

He must be intended to push my finger back.

But his pipe just got pushed back instead, so he is surprised.

And also because what inside of a pipe got thrown out, so he pushes it in his clothes.

“But it’s expensive you know? How much is your budget?”(Owner Cat)

“Un, Then around 10 golds.”(Taichi)

“Hmmm, is that so-ne”(Owner Cat)

Then, Owner is jumping off the counter and totter away.

What is that? What is that cutely back?

Well, if there is a cat, why there aren’t any dog?

If I have to choose a side, I would choose a dog for certain.

When I look at Marl, she is also looking at Owner with burning passion.

That also looks cute in this world, huh?

“These are things that are in your budget range, there are ones that are little expensive. But just 10 golds wouldn’t be enough-ne”(Owner Cat)

Owner Took out several short swords that have the same length of my old sword.

There are 3 of them, so I tried holding and pulling it out of sheath to test its weight one by one.

“Hm, It looks good for a reserve, but its little light. Marl would be more suited for this”(Taichi)

Then I let Marl holding it.

And there is one that she took interest in, so she kept looking at that one.

What she interested in is a green metal curved sword, which has a pattern on it.

There is also a finely carved pattern on its handle.

“Do you like it?”(Taichi)

“Eh? Ah, I’m just thinking that it looks beautiful, and by holding it up, it considerably light.”(Marl)

Then she sheathed it back to scabbard.

Um, she likes it.

“Owner, do you have one that has a longer blade?”(Taichi) “Yeah, for Onii-san, it must be this?”(Owner Cat)

Then he shows me a long sword that finely made.

When I unsheathing, I see the untainted white blade.

Weight and feel when I hold it up in my hand is also perfect. If it’s this sword length, I can behead Troll with it.

“Great, This is it. I’ll take this and this, these 2 swords can you give me some discount?”(Taichi)

I then choose to buy a long sword that Owner pick up, and a short sword that Marl has taken a liking.

Marl is currently busy choosing her new crossbow, so she isn’t noticed.

“These 2 are 25 golds, I can give you 24, but our shop won’t let you put a tab on you know?”(Owner Cat)

“Wahaha, don’t look down on me. Things like this should be this.”(Taichi)

Then I take out 24 gold coins to pay Owner without missing a single coin.

His eyes open wide again.

“I’m shocked-ne.....Where did you get this large sum of money?”(Owner Cat)

“I took down 3 Trolls and sold its corpses. It shouldn’t be long before the Troll’s material to be out on the market.”(Taichi) “Aiyaaaaa, Onii-san is always making me surprised-ne”(Owner Cat)

I put a long sword in the sword holder at my waist and checking its condition.

For a short sword, let’s aim for a good time and give it to Marl.

“Hm, are these made from Mithril?”(Taichi)

“Yeah, these two made from Mithril-ne, Mithril is durable, it doesn’t break, it doesn’t bent, it doesn’t chip, it doesn’t deteriorate. It’s can be called one of mightiest metal-ne. It also has very high magic capability too, even if you put a lot of magic power in, it won’t break down easily.”(Owner Cat)

When I use Appraisal eye on it, its name show “Mithril sword.”

Even though it doesn’t raise my magic stats that much, but it functions as a melee weapon is high.

“And another sword is a rare item with wind element magic imbued with it. It is weight reduction and speeds increase magic in it too, that will make user movement agiler.”(Owner Cat) I use Appraisal eye on it, a short sword also show “Mithril short sword”.

As Owner said, it has weight reduction magic and speeds increase magic of wind element attribute imbued with it.

“Thank you, Luise sure is busy.”(Taichi)

“It’s like that every day-ne”(Owner Cat)

When I parted with Owner, he curled himself into a breathing meatball, I come out of the shop with Marl.

Luise is still stuck with the same customer, and she looks pissed.

But I’m still on a date with Marl, let’s not poke my nose in.

After that is a normal date.

We walk around and bought some snack to eat, watching a street performance in the Central Plaza, take a look at clothes and accessories shop.

“By the way Marl, your stuff looks few, do you have problems with clothing or something?”(Taichi)

Marl is a woman, Of course, she wants a lot of clothes for a change in a mood.

Furthermore, this girl is the real princess.

“If there is too much stuff, it will become a burden.....Though, I want some new clothes too.”(Marl)

Then she shows a little sorrowful smile.

True, if they don't have an inventory like me, they can't keep too many clothes.

If you have a base like a rented house, then it's a different story.

“You can put it in my inventory, don't mind it.”(Taichi) “Still.....”(Marl)

She is still holding back.

Just need to give her a little push

“Another thing is, I want to see Marl in cute clothes too.”(Taichi)

If I talk about the result: It overkill.

We went through clothes shops one by one when I realized it already evening.

But for me, buying one dancer costume which shows a lot of skin is more than satisfied.

But when you become satisfied, you got more tired.

We've talked about clothes, so I bought some too.

Now, we're rested on the bench at the corner of Central Plaza.

“Ahhh, it' so fun! It has been so long since I shopped this much!”(Marl)

Marl dropping herself on the bench, and stretching out her arms and legs with a full smile.

I saw Marl smile many times. But this is the brightest smile I've seen on her face.

Evening bell is ringing.

When the bell toll, most shops are closed, peoples are going back to their family, some going to bar.

Reward form Troll's subjugation, I gave Marl 10 gold coins.

Because, she told me its weakness, and gave me cover fire too.

Even though it very dangerous stunt.

Moreover, I also gave her 20 gold coins for daily necessities as we agreed on before.

And today's clothes cost is taken from that necessities.

Because from the agreement this also includes in clothing and food cost.

"Well, I got to learn a lot today too."(Taichi)

For this world, ready-to-wear clothes are 2nd handed ones, it makes me shocked.

And their all have their own unique design, they don't have any duplicates.

But it can be understood, because of it all order-made.

They don't have mass produced ones, every piece is handmade.

And if they're not tailored ones for themselves, they need to hire a tailor to make ones, which cost a lot of fortune.

For that reason, normal peoples made their own clothes.

If they don't wear it anymore, they'll sell it.

And then others will buy them to use.

If they tired of it they'll sell it again, repeated this circle.

So as I explained, there exist a lot of specialists in managing 2nd handed clothes.

For the basic, there are some baggy and plain clothes too, others are cute or erotic ones.

“Ehm, Taichi-san, those clothes, do I really have to wear it?”(Marl)

“I have already bought it, of course.”(Taichi)

She is asking me, because of my suspicious smile a little while ago for sure.

Can't be helped, because of this all erotic clothes must be used by of a certain kind worker.

Even if Marl is the cute type, but if she wears this erotic type clothes, I wanna see what she'll look like.

“Ah, right. There is another gift for you.”(Taichi)

I took out Mithril short sword that I bought from the weapon shop from my inventory, and give it to Marl who is sitting beside me.

Marl receive it with a very shocked face.

Um, thou shalt feel gratitude.

“WAIT!? EH!? IS THIS, FOR REAL!?”(Marl)

When you saw her speak like that, and hug it tight on her chest.

That means she'll never return it for sure.

“I have many reasons, but it'll tire me out if I explain. So, please just accept it without asking, okay?”(Taichi) The truth is just I saw you took a liking.

So I bought it, that's mainly and all.

“.....Y, Yes”(Marl)

Marl is all red, and lower her head.

What? Her reaction now is strange.

And peoples in the surrounding is looking here with smug in their eyes and seems to be happy with us.

What the hell is that about?

And then I bought Marl who hugged short sword tight in her arms back to the Burning golden bed like that.

Pinea who saw us. Begun to walk here.

“Welcome back, how wa your.....Hoho”(Pinea)

When she see Mithril short sword in Marl arms, she let out a big grin.

What to say, I really have a bad feeling.

“Hehhehhe, I don’t know how you did it, but you’re not bad Onii-san. You even bought her a Mithril short sword. Isn’t this great, Marl?”(Pinea)

Pinea smiles like an Oldman even though her face isn’t fit for it, and use her elbow to hit my stomaChapter

If you look at her outside appearance she looks just like a normal loli girl, but in reality, she is even older than me and also this place Mistress.

At first, I thought she was the Owner’s daughter, but I was wrong. In truth, she is his wife.

And just know this fact yesterday. Dwarf, how frightening.

But still, I didn’t get it.

What is all of this mean anyway?

“Hey, is giving Mithril short sword to someone have a special meaning?”(Taichi)

“”EH?”” (Marl&Pinea)

“Eh?”(Taichi)

Why is atmosphere is frozen

“Ehh, then? Then why did Taichi-san gave this as a gift.....?”(Marl)

“? I saw you like it, and it can be used in self-defense too.”(Taichi)

When they heard my explanation, Pinea smile is twitched. As for Marl, she started to tear up and seem like she is going to cry at any moment.

“Ehh, even though I didn’t understand all of it, but please don’t cry, okay? Pinea, can you just explain to me please?”(Taichi)

First, I hug Marl who start to make sobbing sound and caressing her head, while asking Pinea for an explanation.

It must be some custom or tradition I don't know.

Marl hold her head in my should and start crying.

Um, another world custom is hard to understand.

"A, ummm. You really don't know? It's a common sense though?"(Pinea)

"Yeah, I don't understand it at all. I live with my Master on the mountain in the countryside and trained with him till recently, So I don't know common sense here muChapter "(Taichi) When she heard me, Pinea hit her forehead with her hand.

And explain with a fed up voice.

"For general, if a man gives Mithril short sword to a girl, it's mean[Become mine and use this sword to protect your purity], you know?"(Pinea)

"Ehh, It's a proposal? A love declaration?"(Taichi)

"Does it have another mean, dumbass?"(Pinea)

Common sense, you know? when I heard that from Pinea, I looked up at the ceiling.

IM NOT WRONGGGGGGGGG

Marl, who was crying till her eye is all swelled, is sit on the bed and facing me who sit chair in our room.

".....You have to prepare dinner didn't you, why don't you go down already?"(Taichi)

"I can't leave dumb ass who makes a girl cried alone with her."(Pinea)

And I don,t understand why Pinea is standing nearby and glared at us.

I made her cry, even though I didn't mean to, you know?

"Well, Marl, can you listen to me first?"(Taichi)

Marl, who is looking down at Mithril short sword on her lap, nodded.

Look like she is still listening.

“I’ll say this straight, I gave you that sword as a gift without knowing that custom before.”(Taichi)

Marl letting out sobbing sound again when she heard me.

Please, stop it, or my heart’s Hp will become zero.

“How should I say this.....”(Taichi)

I don’t know what should I say in this situation.

Calm down me, at a time like this, I should say it ou straightly.

I take Mithril short sword form Marl’s lap.

My action makes Marl raise her head and look at me with a despaired eye.

Pinea is shocked that she can’t speak, and making a very scary face.

“.....Will you take this again?”(Taichi)

I use my two hands to lift up Mithril short sword to give it to Marl.

Marl who still can’t process what happened, leave her mouth open, and then.

“.....YES!”(Marl)

Her swelled crying face is now turned into a smileful face.

Pinea who said [Ah, yeah, yeah, I’m full] and leave the room.

I told you to leave from the start.

We make up. I’m now sitting beside her and bring out a towel and clean her face.

Marl look like she is tickles but let me clean her obediently. Then I hug her and push her down.

“I’m really, truly happy.”(Marl)

“Is that so”(Taichi)

I caress her head and kisses her.

And tonight is a long night.

-Material for weapon and armor—

Material that used to make weapon and armor in this world can be arranged into 2 main categories.

First, Metal Ore like copper, iron, steel, brass.

To normal Magic ore like Mithril, Light quartz, Orichalcum.

Other is material from a monster like a fang, bone, leather, shell.

Weapon and armor that made from normal Metal ore are easiest to process and cheaper, and if it made from by the fine craftsman. It'll come out with high durability, so it's most popular.

Weapon and armor that made from Magic ore are hard to process, and ore veins are fewer so its more expensive but its performance is also far higher.

And weapon and armor that made from a monster's material, it has varied quality depends on the various reason. Even if you use the same part of the same monster species, you won't get the same quality of gear.

But if it's weapon and armor that made from high ranked species such as dragon, it's performance will be higher than that made of Magic ore.

And for the basic, most of it is lighter than metal.

That why there're a lot of people who choose to use monster's part as material.
